SAINT RITA HIGH SCHOOL, CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Dedication...

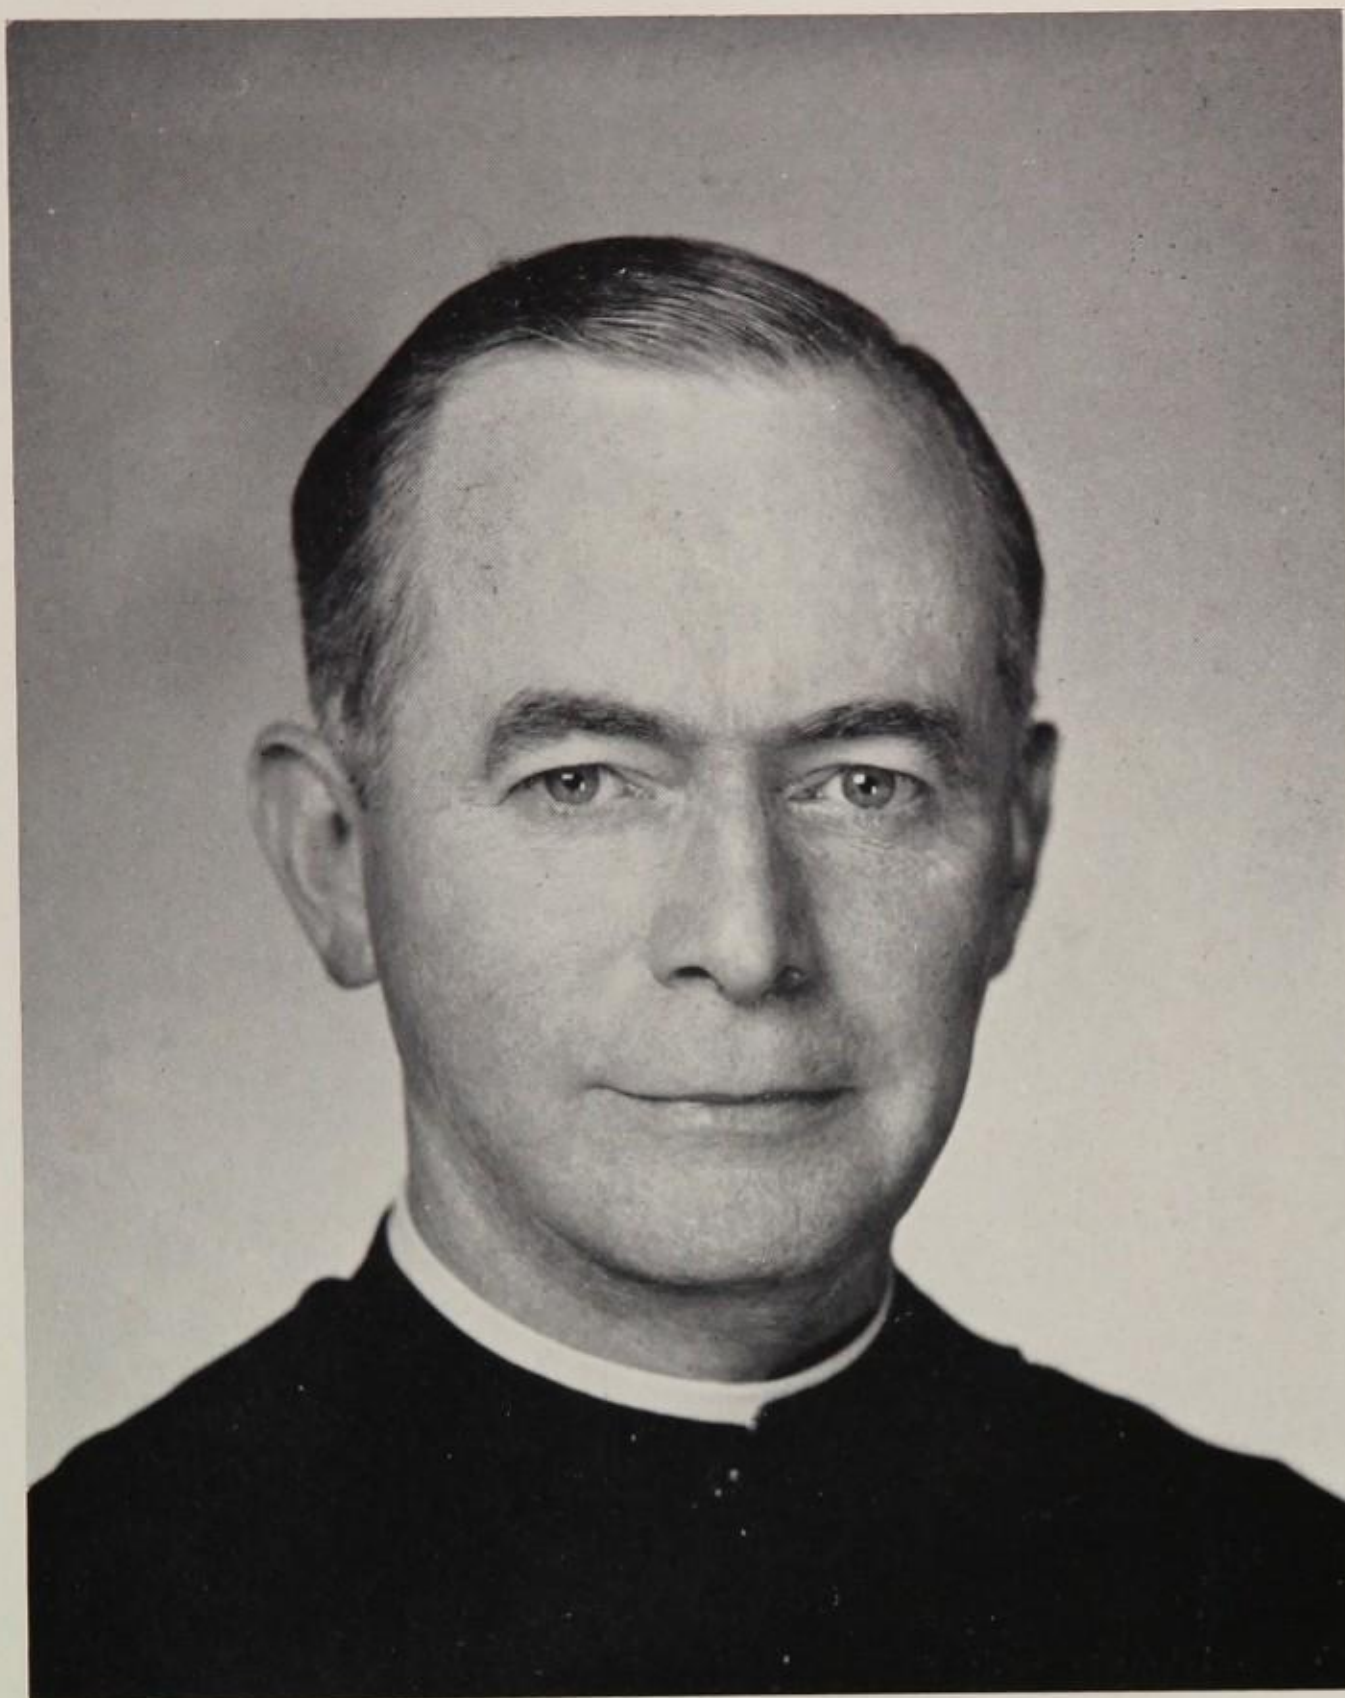

This year's Cascian is dedicated to Mr. Desmond J. Coleman. Mr. Coleman came to St. Rita when she was still just a "prairie" school. He helped the school grow up. He always did and he always is working hard to help in the complex task that is a school's administration. Every student admires his energy and his crisp and impersonal manner.

Father Hickey personifies the Augustinian Order. Scholarship and trained intelligence is in the tradition of St. Augustine. Besides getting all those degrees Fr. Hickey has "been around and knows what's going on." He is energetic and discerning, careful and confident, as all good leaders are.

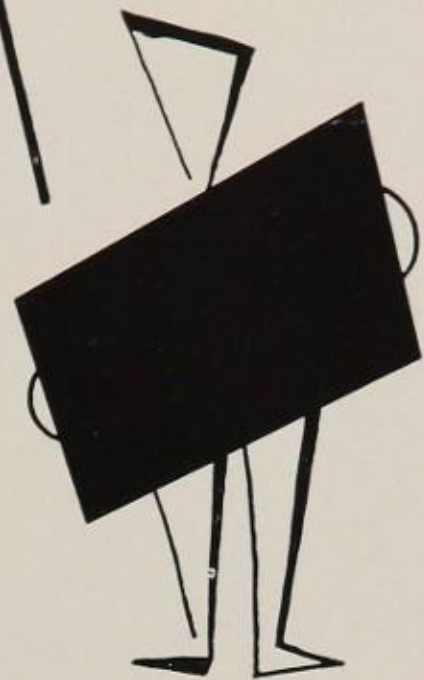

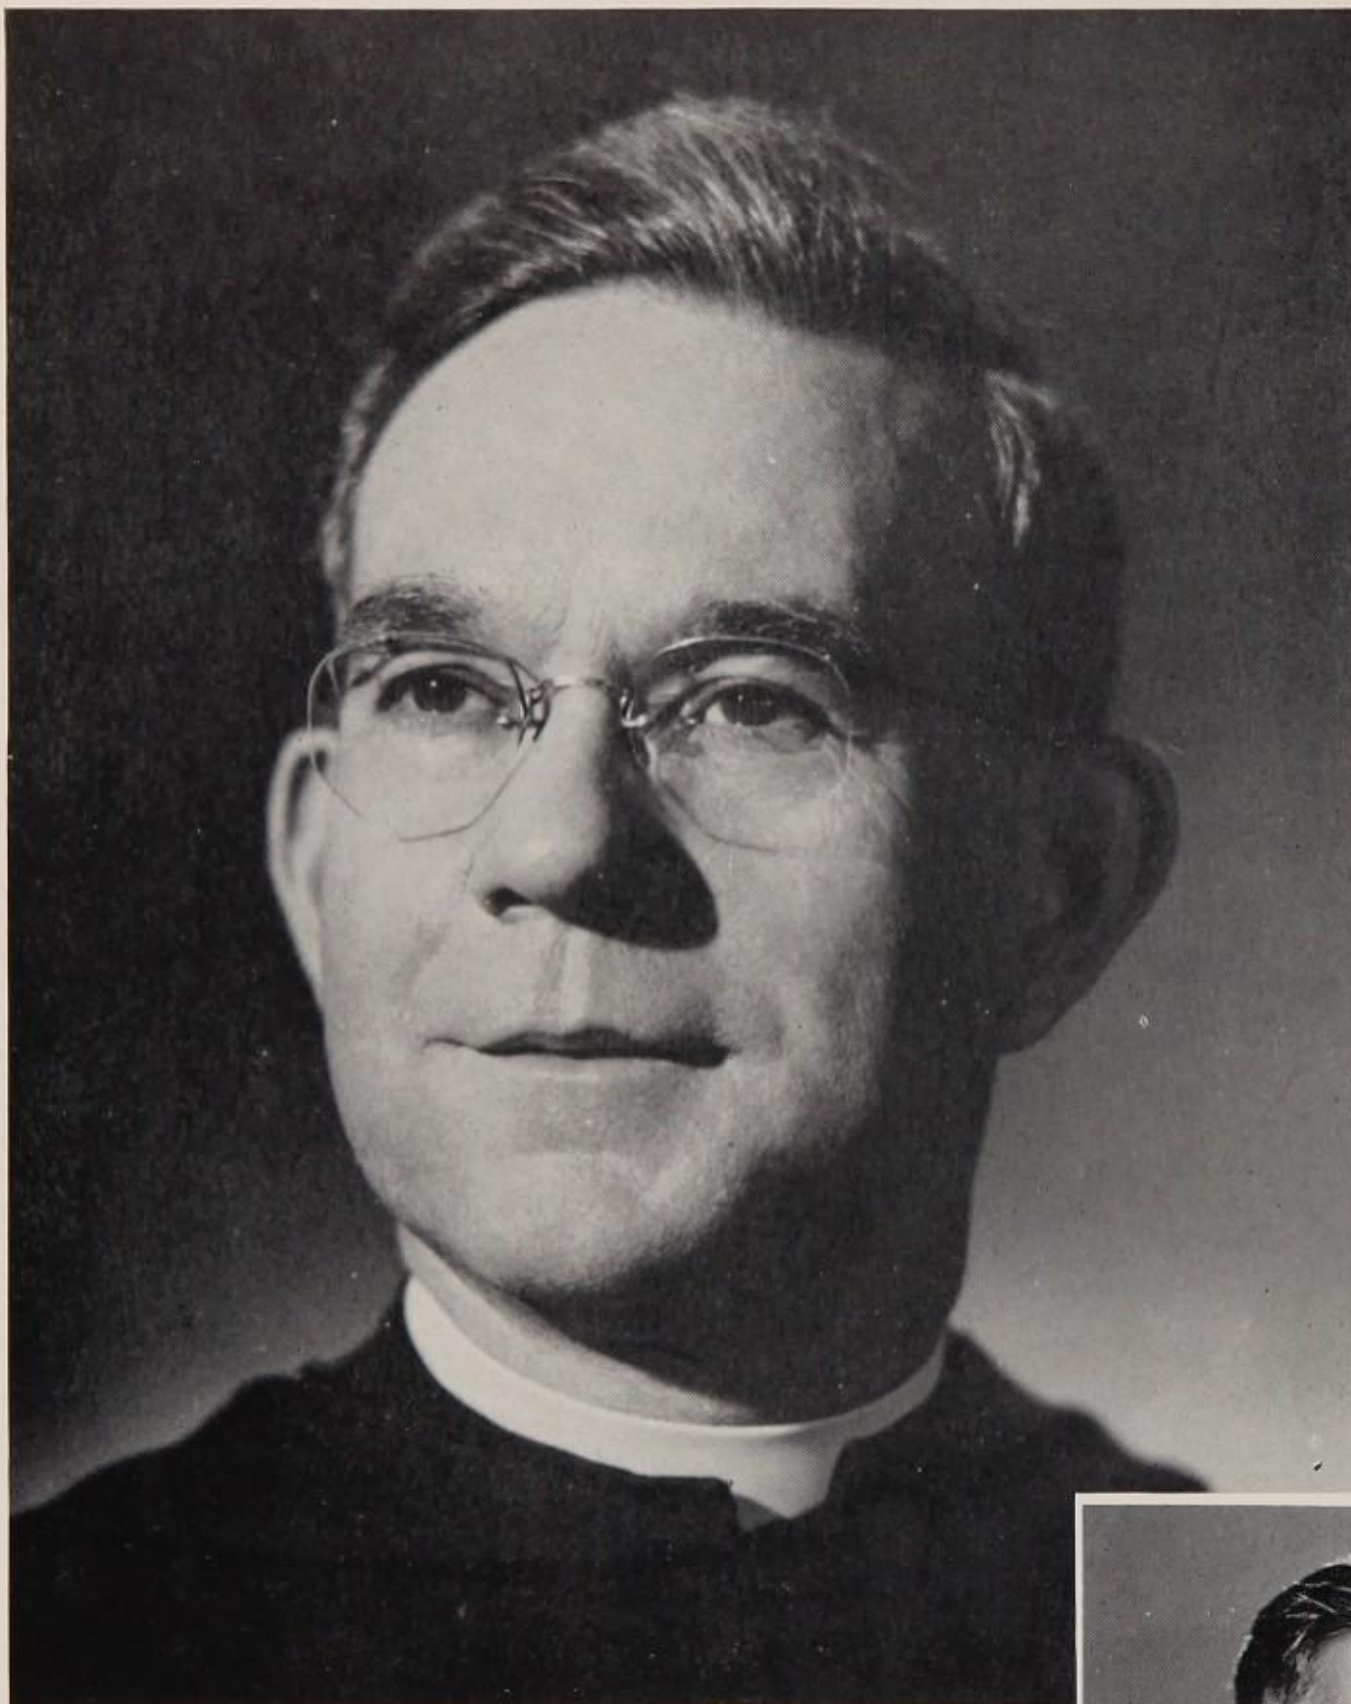

Father McHale became Prior Provincial in 1950, and celebrated his 25th year as a priest in 1951. He is an authority on education and administration. The Cascian wishes him many more moments of happiness and success in his administration.

Administration

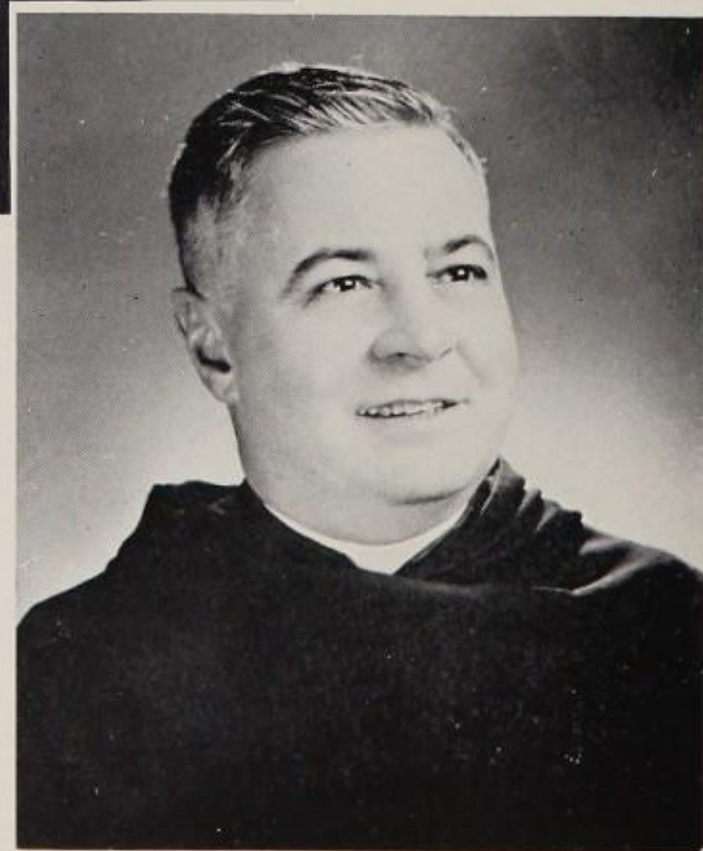

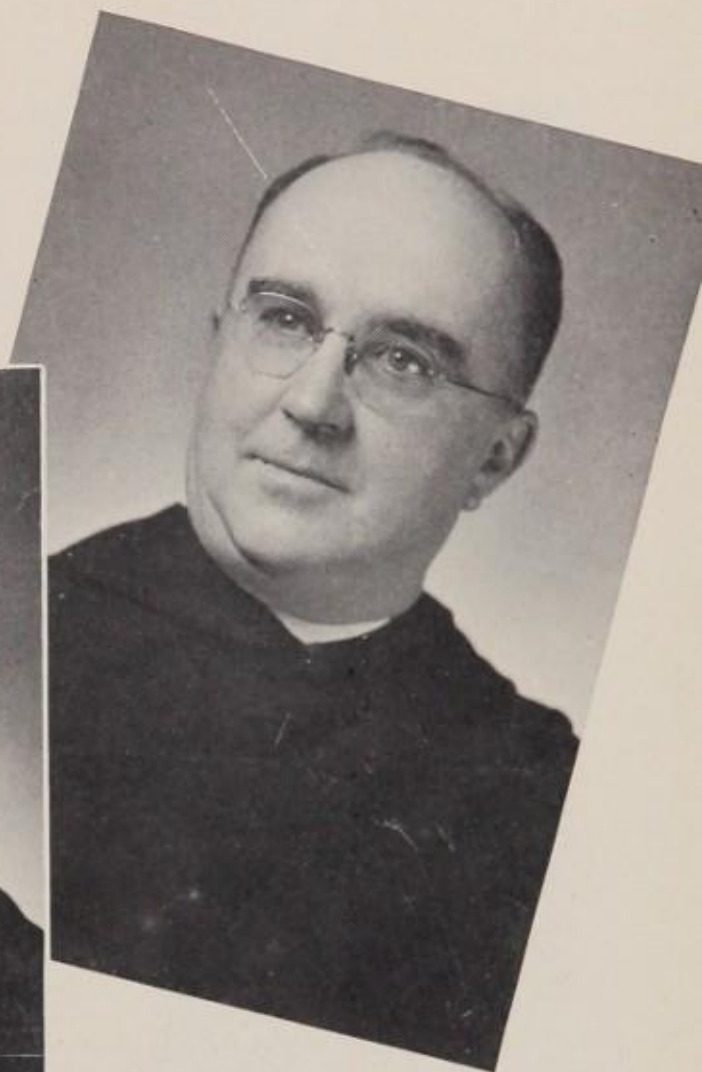

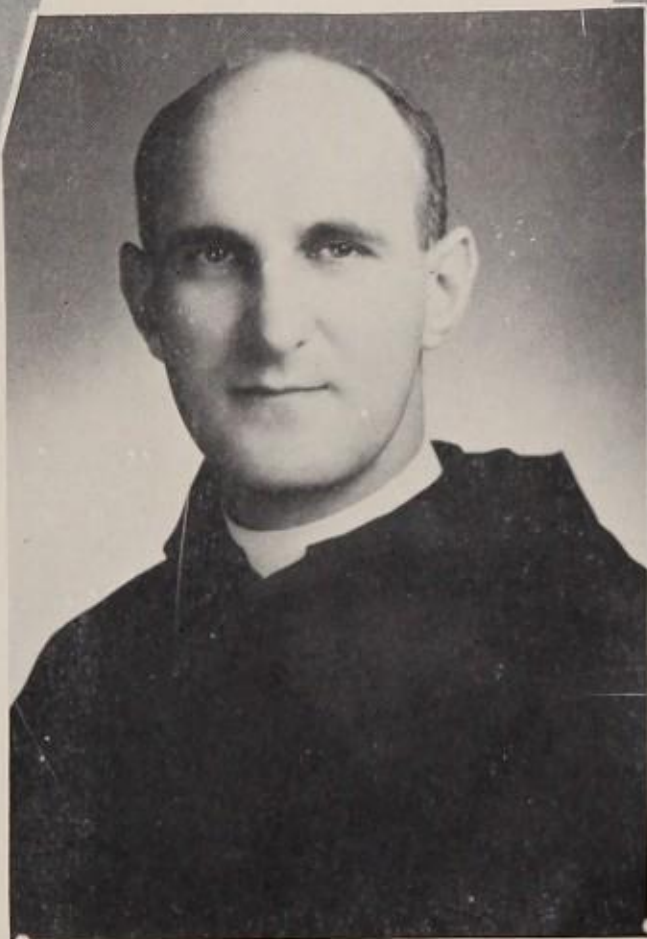

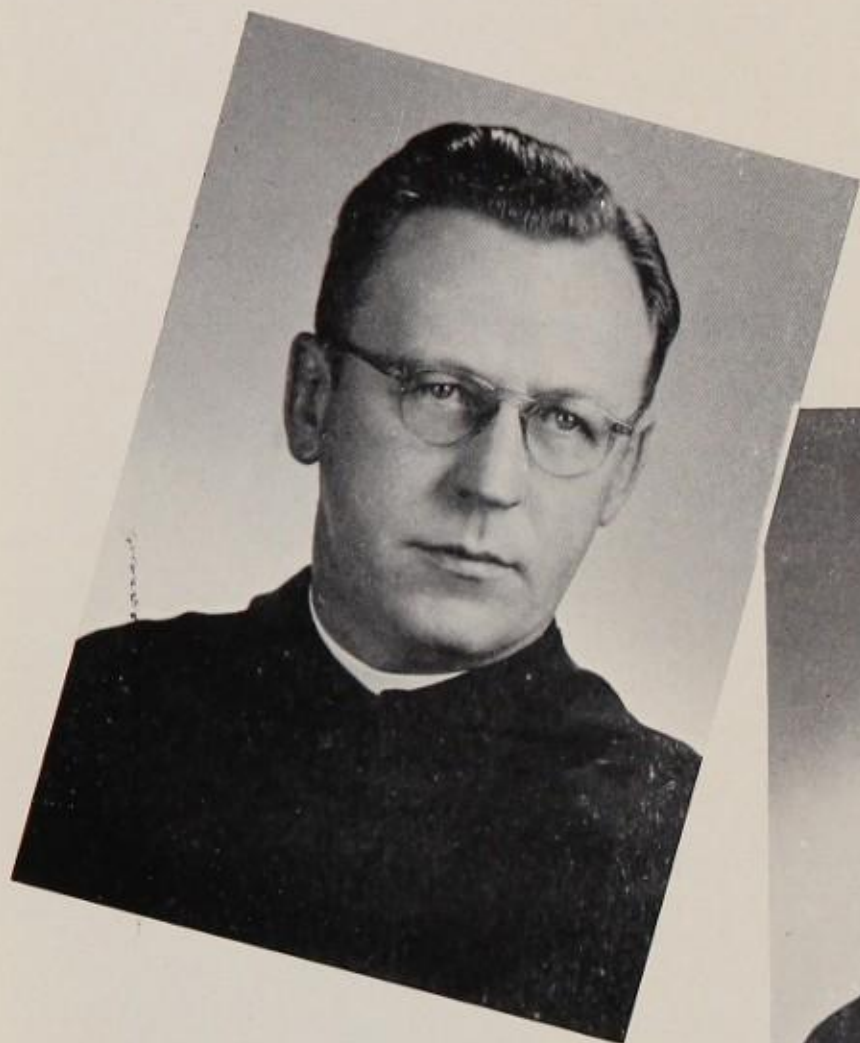

The class of 1924 was small but great. Fr. Doyle was graduated with this class, went out and became a priest, returned to St. Rita and is now Prior. It's nice to have an old grad running the school, and we hope he keeps up the fine, forward progress he is now making in the improvement each year of the school in general.

Fr. Fink came in 1935. The school was small, insufficient, and a "white elephant" too. Now it's among the biggest. It is also now a self-supporting proposition, which is more than enough to ask of any institution of learning.

Administration . . .

Like his predecessors, Father Cavanaugh has an education in educational procedures. And to say that he is a keen judge of character is a laughable understatement.

Fr. Coyne is a thorough teacher and an aggressive administrator. He has been here long and has served in many different capacities.

Fr. Winn is our representative in the world of everyday commercial dealings. He gets things and he gets things done.

Student Counsellors . . .

On occasion, the student counsellor takes the role of disciplinarian. Fr. Crawford is well suited. He coaches our boxing teams, and they have won more than a few tournament cups. But he is not an ogre, and he answers questions just as well and freely as he gives unasked-for instructions.

Fr. Horne teaches business administration. He also means business when he spells Fr. Crawford in the duties of student counsellor. He's been assistant counsellor in Egan Hall for seven years.

Fr. Thomas handles the tasks of co-counsellor in Green Hall in peaceful dignity, despite the often hectic character this position assumes. He is an all-around teacher and so is of double value to St. Rita.

Always willing to be of assistance. That's Fr. Leo Cavanaugh. He was formerly a professor at St. Rita. He alternates with Fr. Thomas to keep order in Green Hall, and does a fine job, too.

Rev. Fr. Leo Cavanaugh

Faculty . . .

The faculty consists not of good teachers and bad, but good teachers and better. They've learned their subjects and they've learned how to teach these subjects. The worlds of science, technology, and academic studies are mapped out, using the rules of reason and the near-relative of reason, religion. Though a number of students would have you believe otherwise, a teacher never works as much as his student—always more.

In Chapel . . .

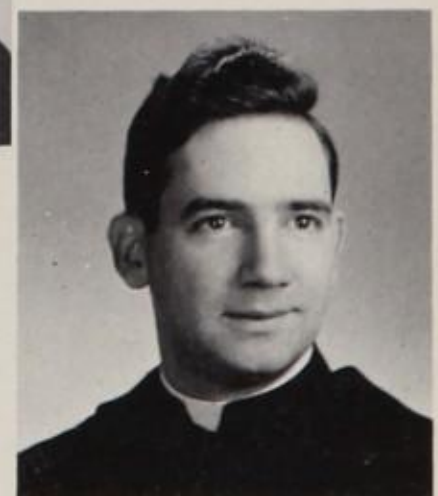

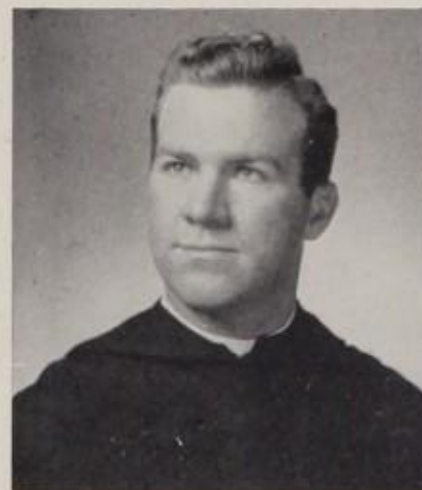

A public school can quickly be made Catholic by putting a crucifix in each room, by building a chapel, and by populating it with a faculty of religious.

These three furnishings are enough to create the desired atmosphere. But whatever Catholic atmosphere there is, it is concentrated in the chapel.

Here the student receives Communion, hears Mass, confesses his sins and listens to sermons slanted toward his needs.

Fr. Gavin and Fr. Foley are this year's chaplains. Among their various duties is the responsibility of directing the "Sanctuary Society."

Students

Senior Class . . .

Here we go again. The eighth-grade elite become fools and freshmen. The senior-year savant finds himself wearing the beanie of inexperience in the University of Life. The four-year attempt to teach him to use his hands and his head may mean little or much. The campaign to teach him of his soul will mean everything or nothing.

The Senior Prom

Being so special and singular, it is referred to simply as "The Prom." The student who is "going" takes great pains to see that everything is just right, and he makes great sacrifices to save up money for this, the biggest whingding of all his four years. This year The Prom was held at Olympia Fields Country Club, on May 15.

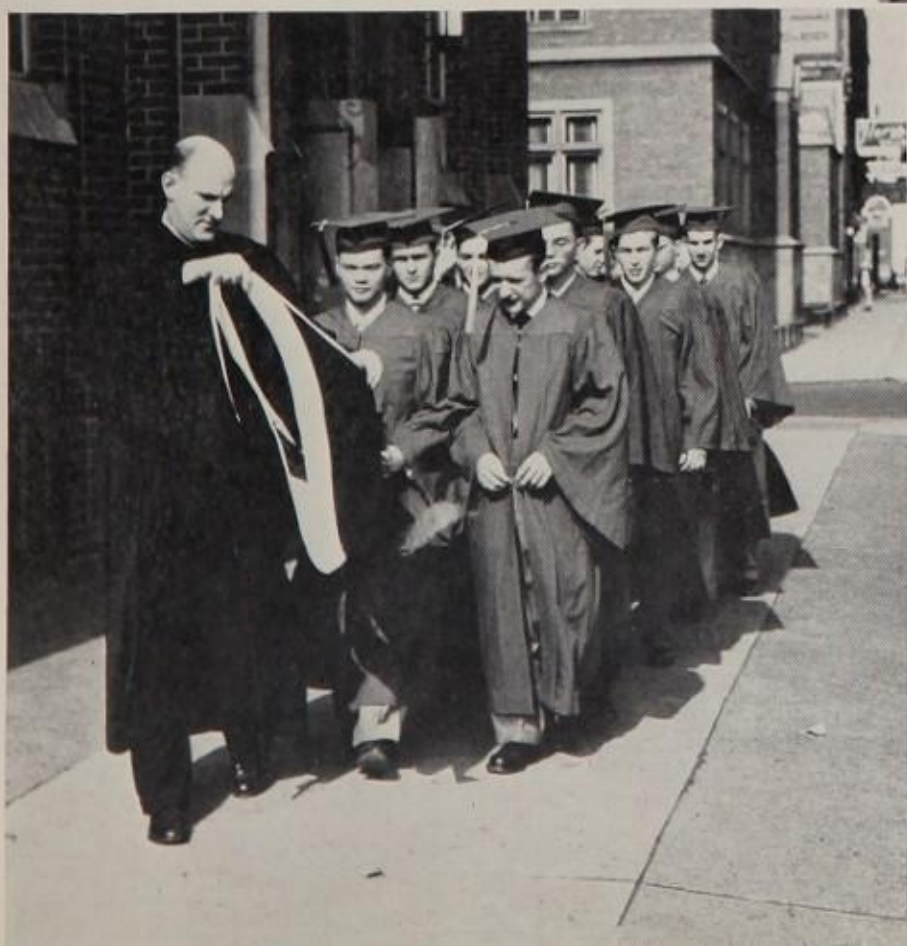

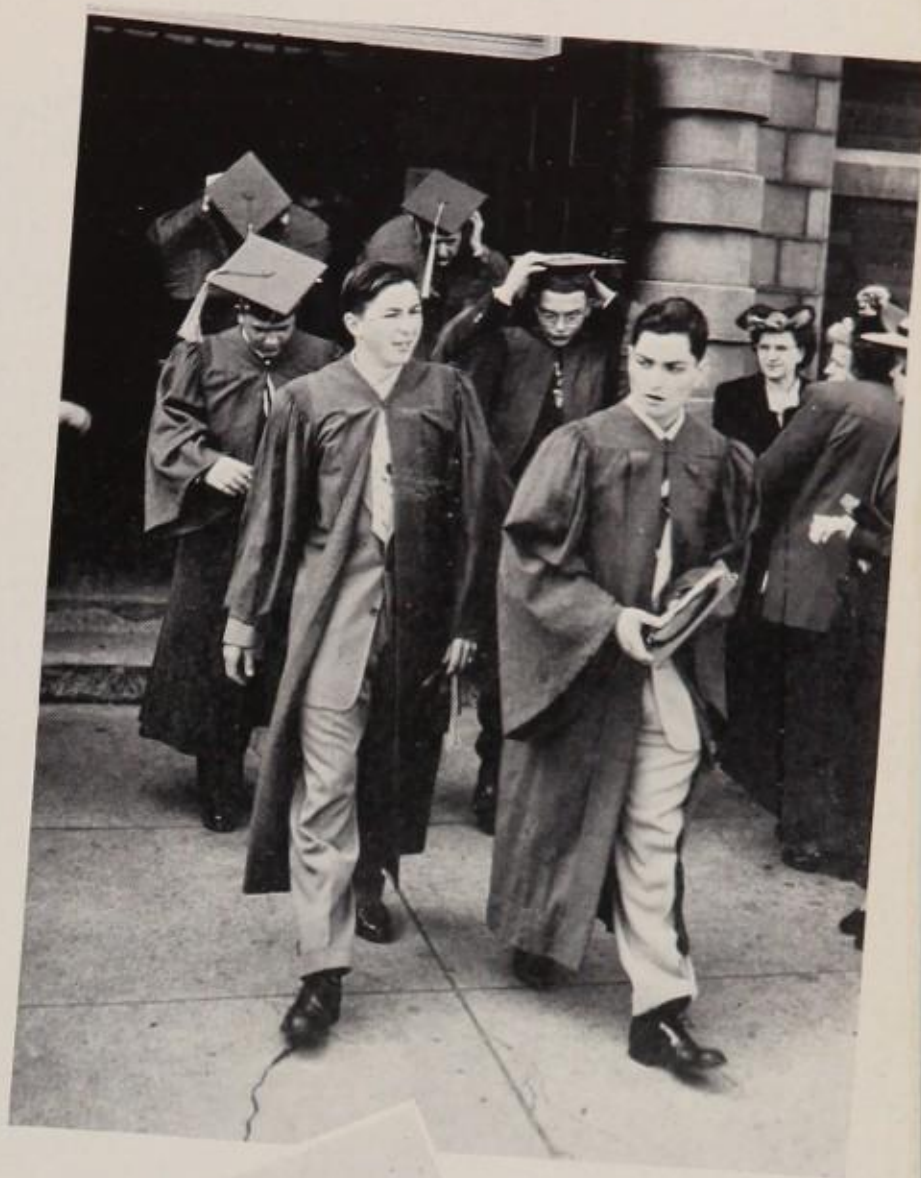

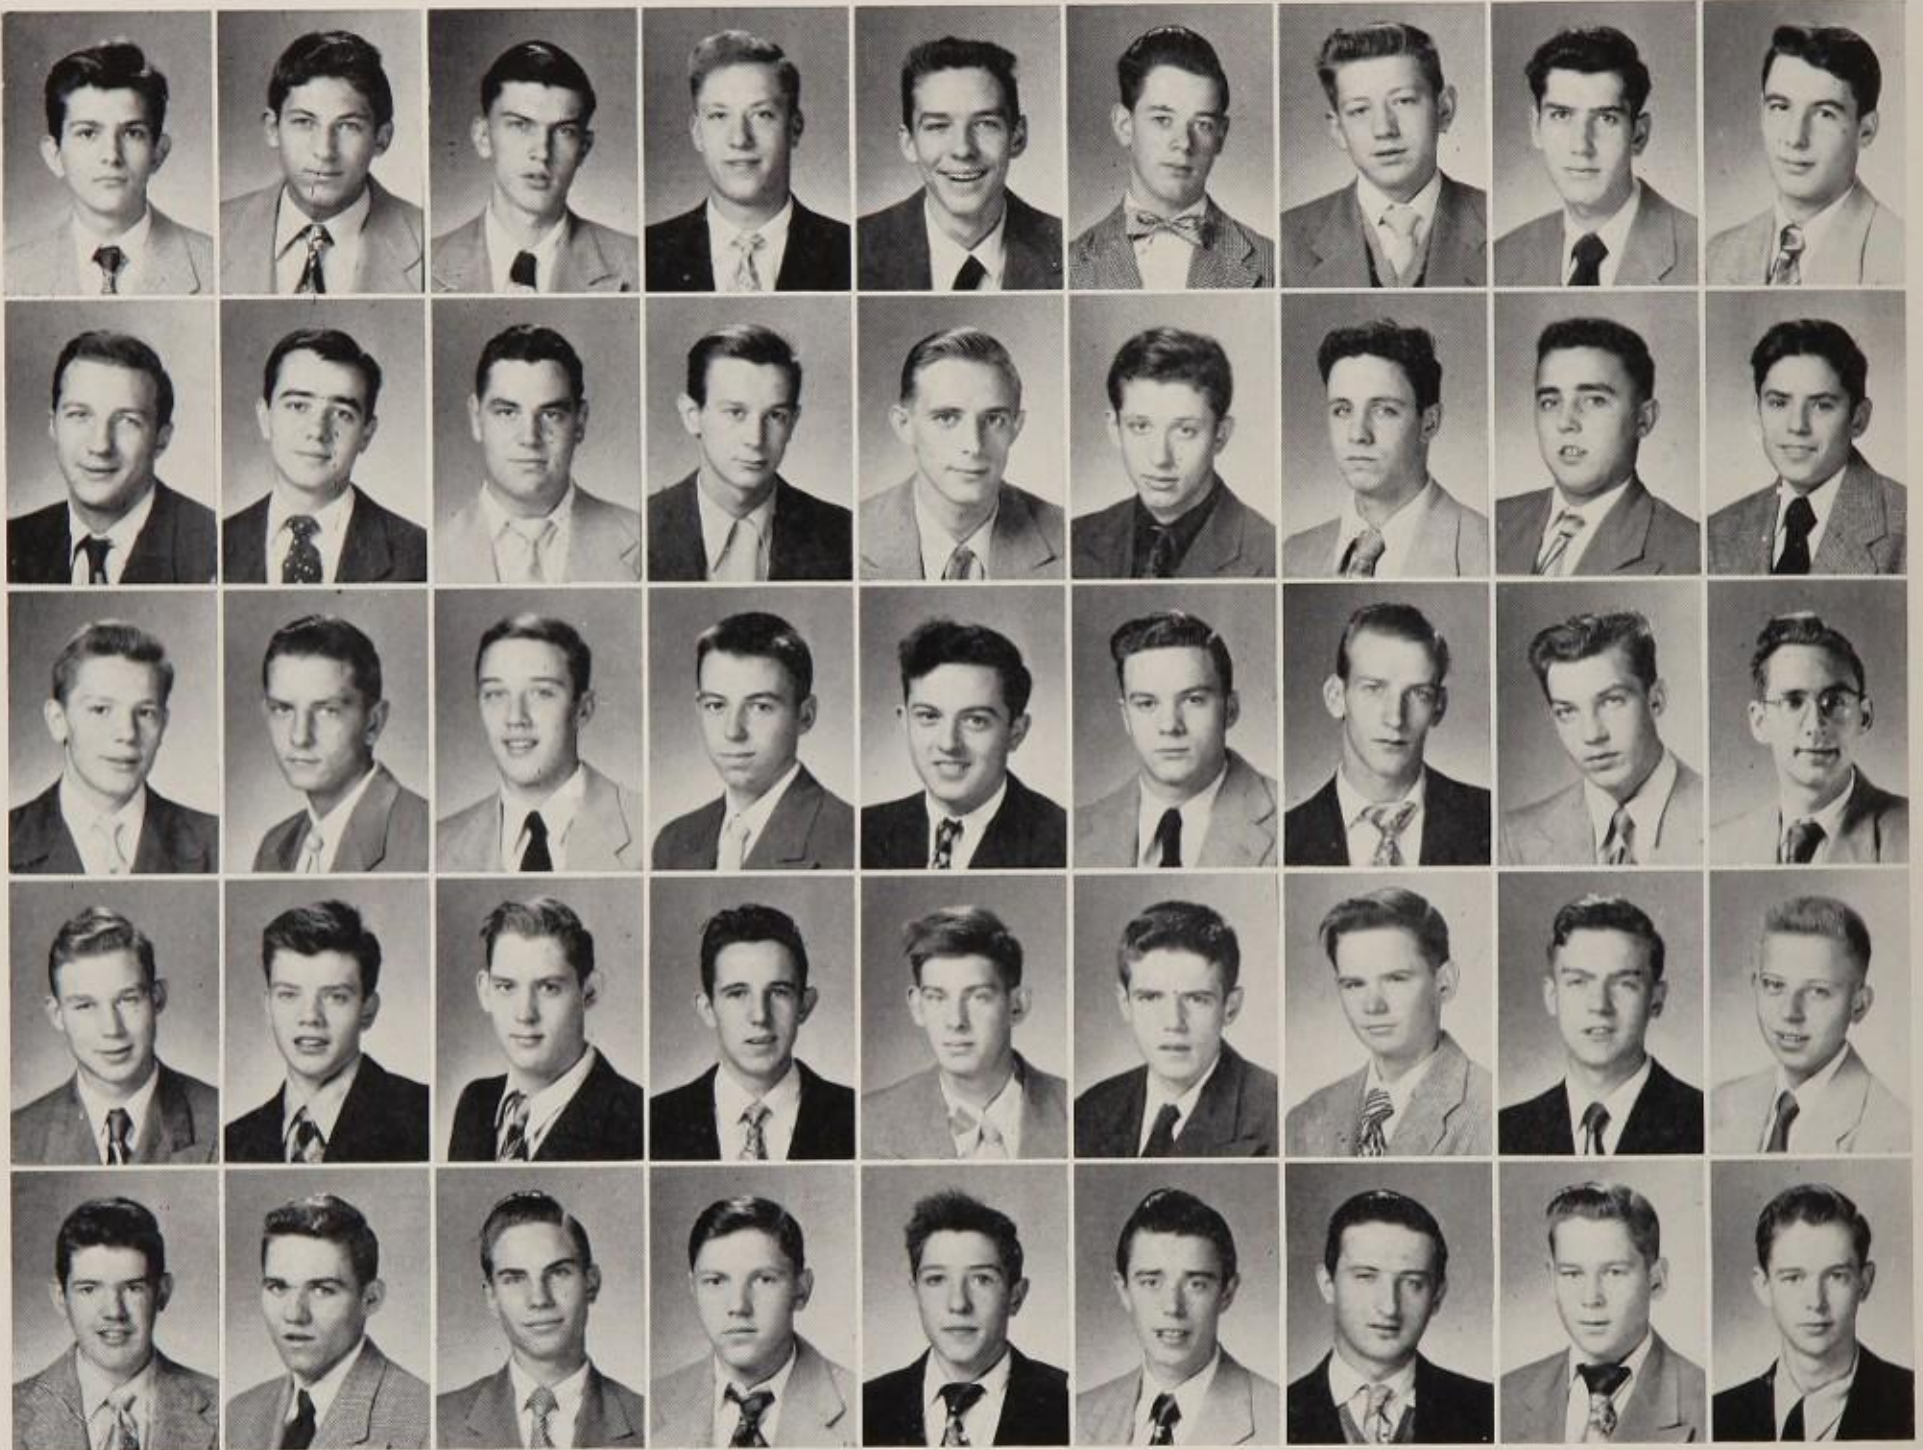

Graduation . . .

It is quite possible that a student does more thinking during the graduation proceedings than he has ever done in an entire exam week. Sometimes it seems that the air is heavy with thought. Thinking about what has happened, is happening, and might happen, all at one and the same time, tends to stir up mixed emotions. It is one mix that soberes.

Juniors

Row Two: Babski, Bachman Baggio, Baldyga, Banke, Baranowski, Barrett, Barret, Bartusiak.

Row Three: Baryl, Bartz, Baumgarten, Bergman, Belfiore, Biederman, Birk, Blackowski, Bogusz.

Row Five: Brzegowy, Buckley, Budz, Bula, Bulger, Burke, Bush, Bush, Byrne.

The juniors form the stable middle class of student life, which means that they are either hitting their stride or losing the pace. A student's abilities or inabilities become immediately apparent during his third year because by this time he has run out of excuses to make.

Summer School

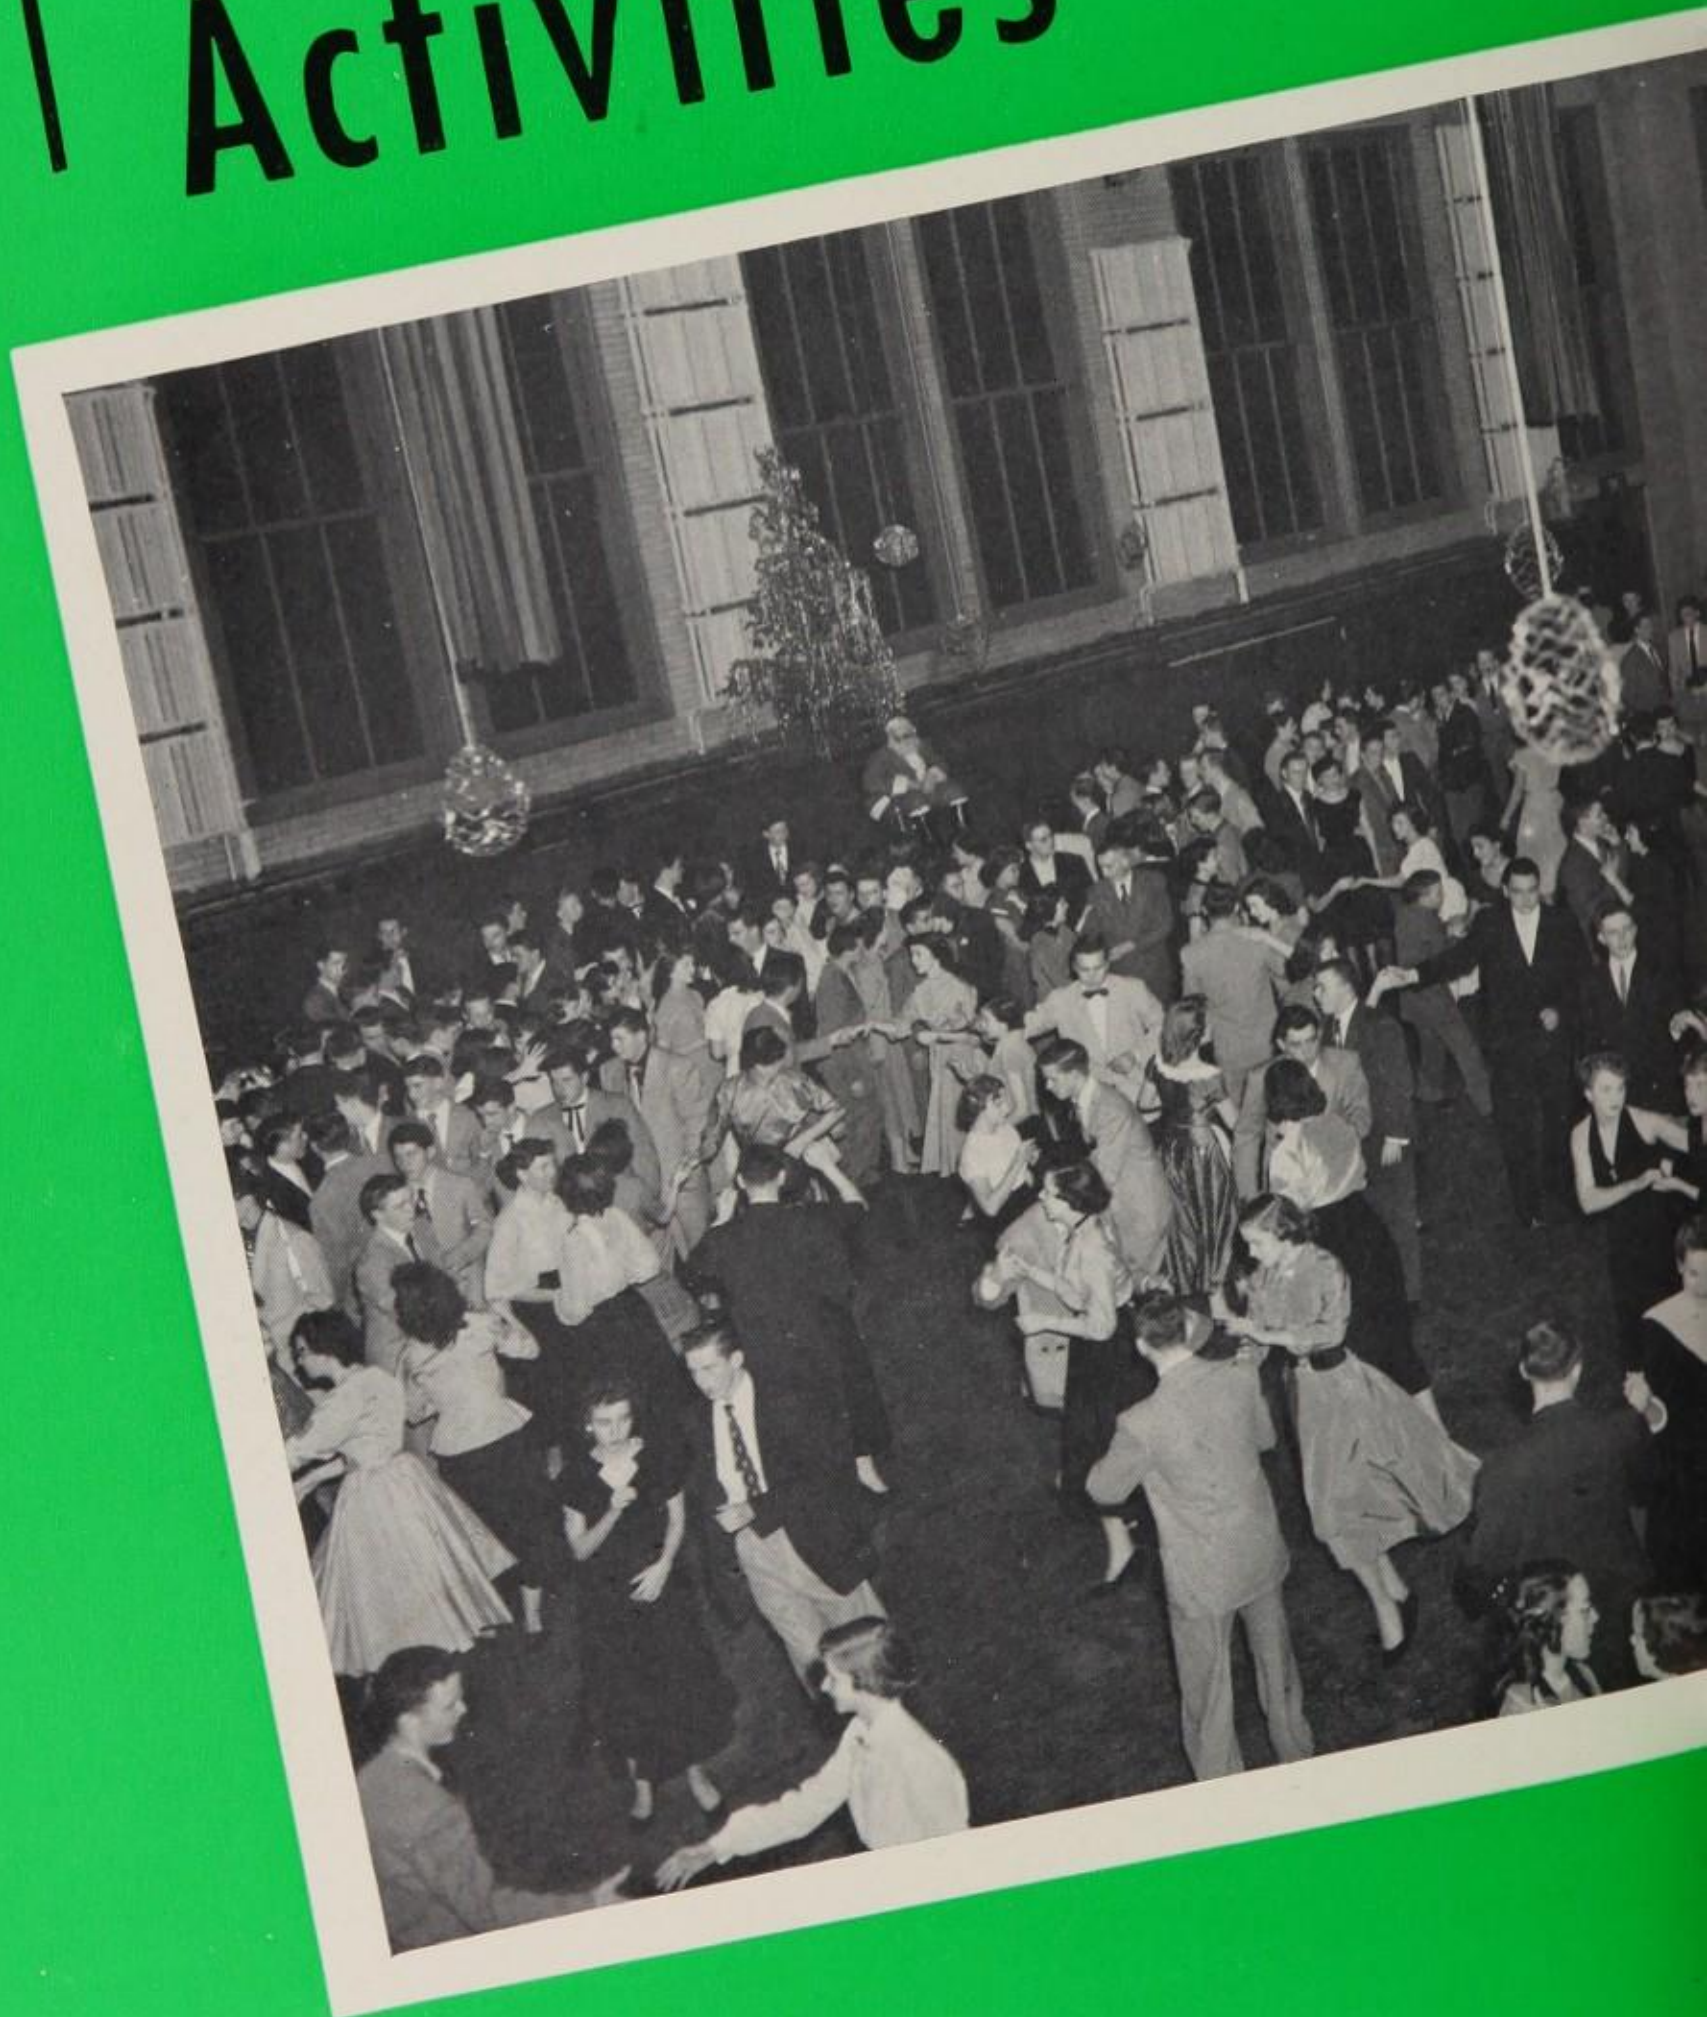

Mr. D. J. Coleman

What can be said about summer school that has not been said before? Very little. It's not the best way to spend a vacation but it is about as happy a place as it can be under the circumstances. They are smiling in the pictures are they not? The administration and faculty do their bit to make the medicine somewhat palatable as they give it in liberal doses.

Editor-in-Chief

Umbria is a county in Italy just north to north-east of Rome. Cascia is a very small town in Umbria, where St. Rita was born. This yearbook you are now reading is named after the town.

The Cascian is just about the most complete record between two covers of a year's activities here at St. Rita High School, which has a remarkably large variety of activities. Fr. McConville and Frank Neubek played the roles of mastermind and veteran, and saw that things did not get messed up during the long process of distilling a good, representative yearbook from a meaningless pile of photographs and copy.

This, of course, is the final product, and it is an understatement to say that I and the rest of the Cascian staff hope that you are enjoying yourself in reading through it, be it for the first or for the umpteenth time.

The rest of the staff includes: Ray Murphy, now a junior and the associate editor and future editor-in-chief; Richard Niedbalec, art editor; Don Walsh, sports editor and scribe; Bern Clancy, Frank Mayer and Dick Granitz, who are the ad-getters. Last but certainly not least is Ken Zwarycz, typing Editor. It's a tight clique that really clicks.

Ritan

Fr. John Gaffney is a soft-spoken, efficient moderator who gets the Ritan whipped into shape for each deadline. Aided by Fr. Wilbur Labadie and his acid wit, he does more than his share of certain unavoidable, tedious and thankless chores that mean the difference between a sheaf of copy and an interesting newspaper.

Richard Niedbalec regularly draws pictures for the paper when he is not being the object of mixed emotions as a result of his feature column.

Harry Burdzinski is the rotund man-about-school who is the news editor. His fair, concise, unbiased treatment of the news shows that he will definitely not find a place for himself in journalism.

Don Walsh makes a miniature Arch Ward and so helps many students get the inside sports picture here at St. Rita, through his column, "Out of Bounds."

However, it is Fred Barylski who is the third of the editorial triumvirate. He is the sports editor, and fills up the rest of the sports page.

Then there's Frank Mayer, ad-getter supreme. Also Bern Clancy & Co., who get the paper distributed among the students. Jim Dreyer is the photographer, but other shutter bugs also sometimes get their snaps published.

Any history of the St. Rita Band just has to be in capsule form. . . . No organization in the school packs more into an already confined school year as the band. . . . Therefore, we will touch the surface only and hope that we give you some sort of picture of the great work of this fine group. . . .

CAPSULE COMMENTS: The Band started back in July and August to get ready for the many engagements they are called upon to attend . . . eager Freshman are drilled in the fundamentals of marching and band technique. . . . Pretty soon they are joined by the upper classmen. . . . The whole group is drilled and drilled until they approximate the ideal that is in the mind of the director, Robert A. Black. . . . Then follow the numberless engagements which we will try to squeeze into this short space. . . .

The MARDI GRAS parade at Riverview where the Band combined pleasure with business and did well at both. . . . The many football shows where the Band made St. Rita Students proud that they had enrolled at our institution. . . .

The Band . . .

The weekend trip to Quincy College where the group displayed marching perfection and gentlemanly and ladylike conduct. . . . Where the Quincy Fathers and Students showed us a time we will never forget. . . . The All-Star Band's performance at the Chicago Stadium where they thrilled 20,000 people at halftime of the Harlem Globe-Trotter's Game with Toledo. . . . The Christmas Band Ball which was one of the outstanding events of the school year saw Miss Pat Huegelet of the Academy of Our Lady crowned "Miss Merry Christmas." . . . The foundation of Bob Black's Swing Band which started out to be a Band for the basketball games and turned out to be a dance orchestra that was in great demand. . . . As of this writing they played for dances at St. Helen's and Maria High school. . . . This group also provided the nucleus of the spirit and cheering at the basketball games. . . . Following this the entire band paraded at the dedication festivities at Mendel only to have rain mar the entire proceedings. . . . Rain or shine the Band always appears. . . .

The Irish Shoe put on at the Stadium for the NCAA Regionals. . . . Preparation for the Annual Spring Festival including practices at all hours of the day. . . . The marching engagements for the various Knights of Columbus groups on their Communion Days during the month of May. . . . The Annual Spring Festival which was held on May 10th at the new Maria High School Auditorium. . . . The Graduation Exercises at the Colony Theatre which is one of the high points in the Band year. . . . Finally, incoming Frosh are screened and drilled for the better part of the month of June.

Behind the chronicled schedule just outlined in brief is a well knit organization that really does and dies for the Alma Mater. . . . It starts at the top with the jet-propelled director, Robert A. Black and his assistant, the man of many interests, Joseph Eraci, Jr.

The complete list of officers is as follows: Louis Ricci, President; William Heubaum and Norbert Lach with Ray Lech as Assistant; Gino Pacetti, Secretary with Richard Schmidt as Assistant; Nicholas Galatte and Ken Agrimonti, Librarians with Ronald Micetic as assistant; Donald Ostrowski and Tom Ciechanowski, Managers with Michael Kelly, Charles Kloese and Thomas Pickert as aids. . . .

This year the Band was aided in the aesthetic department by the following majorettes, more affectionately called the "Ritanettes": Bernie Waldron, Arlene Byron, Lynn Clark, Grace Gozder, Carol Heubaum, Laura Ann Norvell, Bernice Juris, Virginia St. John, Rosemary Chwatal, Judy Poduba and Janice Lankin. . . .

We close this capsule account of the St. Rita Band with a farewell salute to our graduating seniors. . . . We say goodbye to soft spoken, loyal and true Louis Ricci; hard working, considerate, unselfish Gino Pacetti; indispensable, loyal, courageous, slave laborers Don Ostrowski and Tom Ciechanowski; impeccable, reserved, kind hearted and true blue, Bill Heubaum; dapper, man about town, lady killer and neat Richard Schmidt; hospitable, quiet, humble, music minded Norbert Lach; big, rough and ready heart of gold Charley Gozder; witty, life of the party, naive guy Tom Goyer; contact man, irrepressible, hardworking Ray Lech; good hearted, fun loving, rollicking Joe Joe Kasperski. These are the ones who have "made" the St. Rita Band Story of 1952-53.

Spring Festival . . .

This year the Band presented the Annual Spring Festival on the night of May 11th at the new Maria High School Auditorium. . . .

As usual, the Band performed numbers that made easy listening and in keeping with tradition the Band compositions were interspersed with variety numbers in the form of group dances and instrumental solos.

The famous Ritanettes, the majorettes who double as dancers, did several precision numbers. Plus this in the variety line, there were piano solos, an accordion quintet and trumpet trio.

The entire Festival was under the direction of Mr. Robert A. Black, the Band master, and his assistant Joseph Eraci, Jr. Miss Bernadine Waldron was in charge of the Ritanettes.

Some of the Band compositions were: TV Suite, Belle of the Ball, Three Gabbaleros, Four Flat Boogie and other easy listening works.

Christmas Band Ball

EACH YEAR at Christmas time the Band has one of the outstanding social events of the school year. This year the Band Ball was held on the night of December 20th. Bob Ruehle's famous Band provided the music for the occasion. Joe

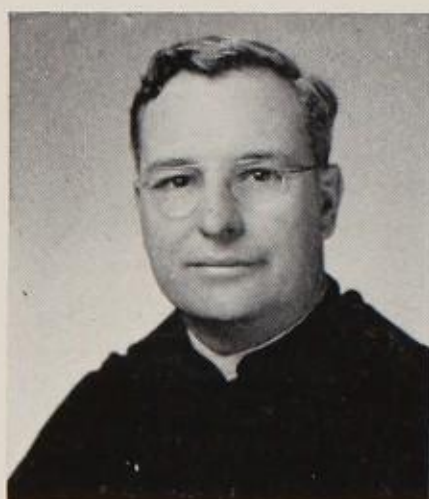

Joe Kasperski played the role of Santa Claus and Miss Pat Huegelet of the Academy of Our Lady was crowned "Miss Merry Christmas."

The success of this dance was due entirely to the fine work of the following members of the committee: Louis Ricci, Chairman and Co-Chairman Bill Heubaum; Ray Lech, David Kamm and Norbert Lach on Publicity; Charles Gozder and Thomas Goyer on Decorating; Gino Pacetti, Nick Galatte, Keith Thedens, Ken Agrimonti and Richard Schmidt on Tickets; Dick Meehan, Tom Shanahan and Richard Antonacci on Wardrobe; Don Ostrowski and Tom Ciechanowski on Cleanup. These Band members were assisted by young ladies from various schools who acted as aides.

The whole group was under the supervision of Robert A. Black, the Band Master and his assistant Joseph Eraci, Jr.

National Honor Society . . .

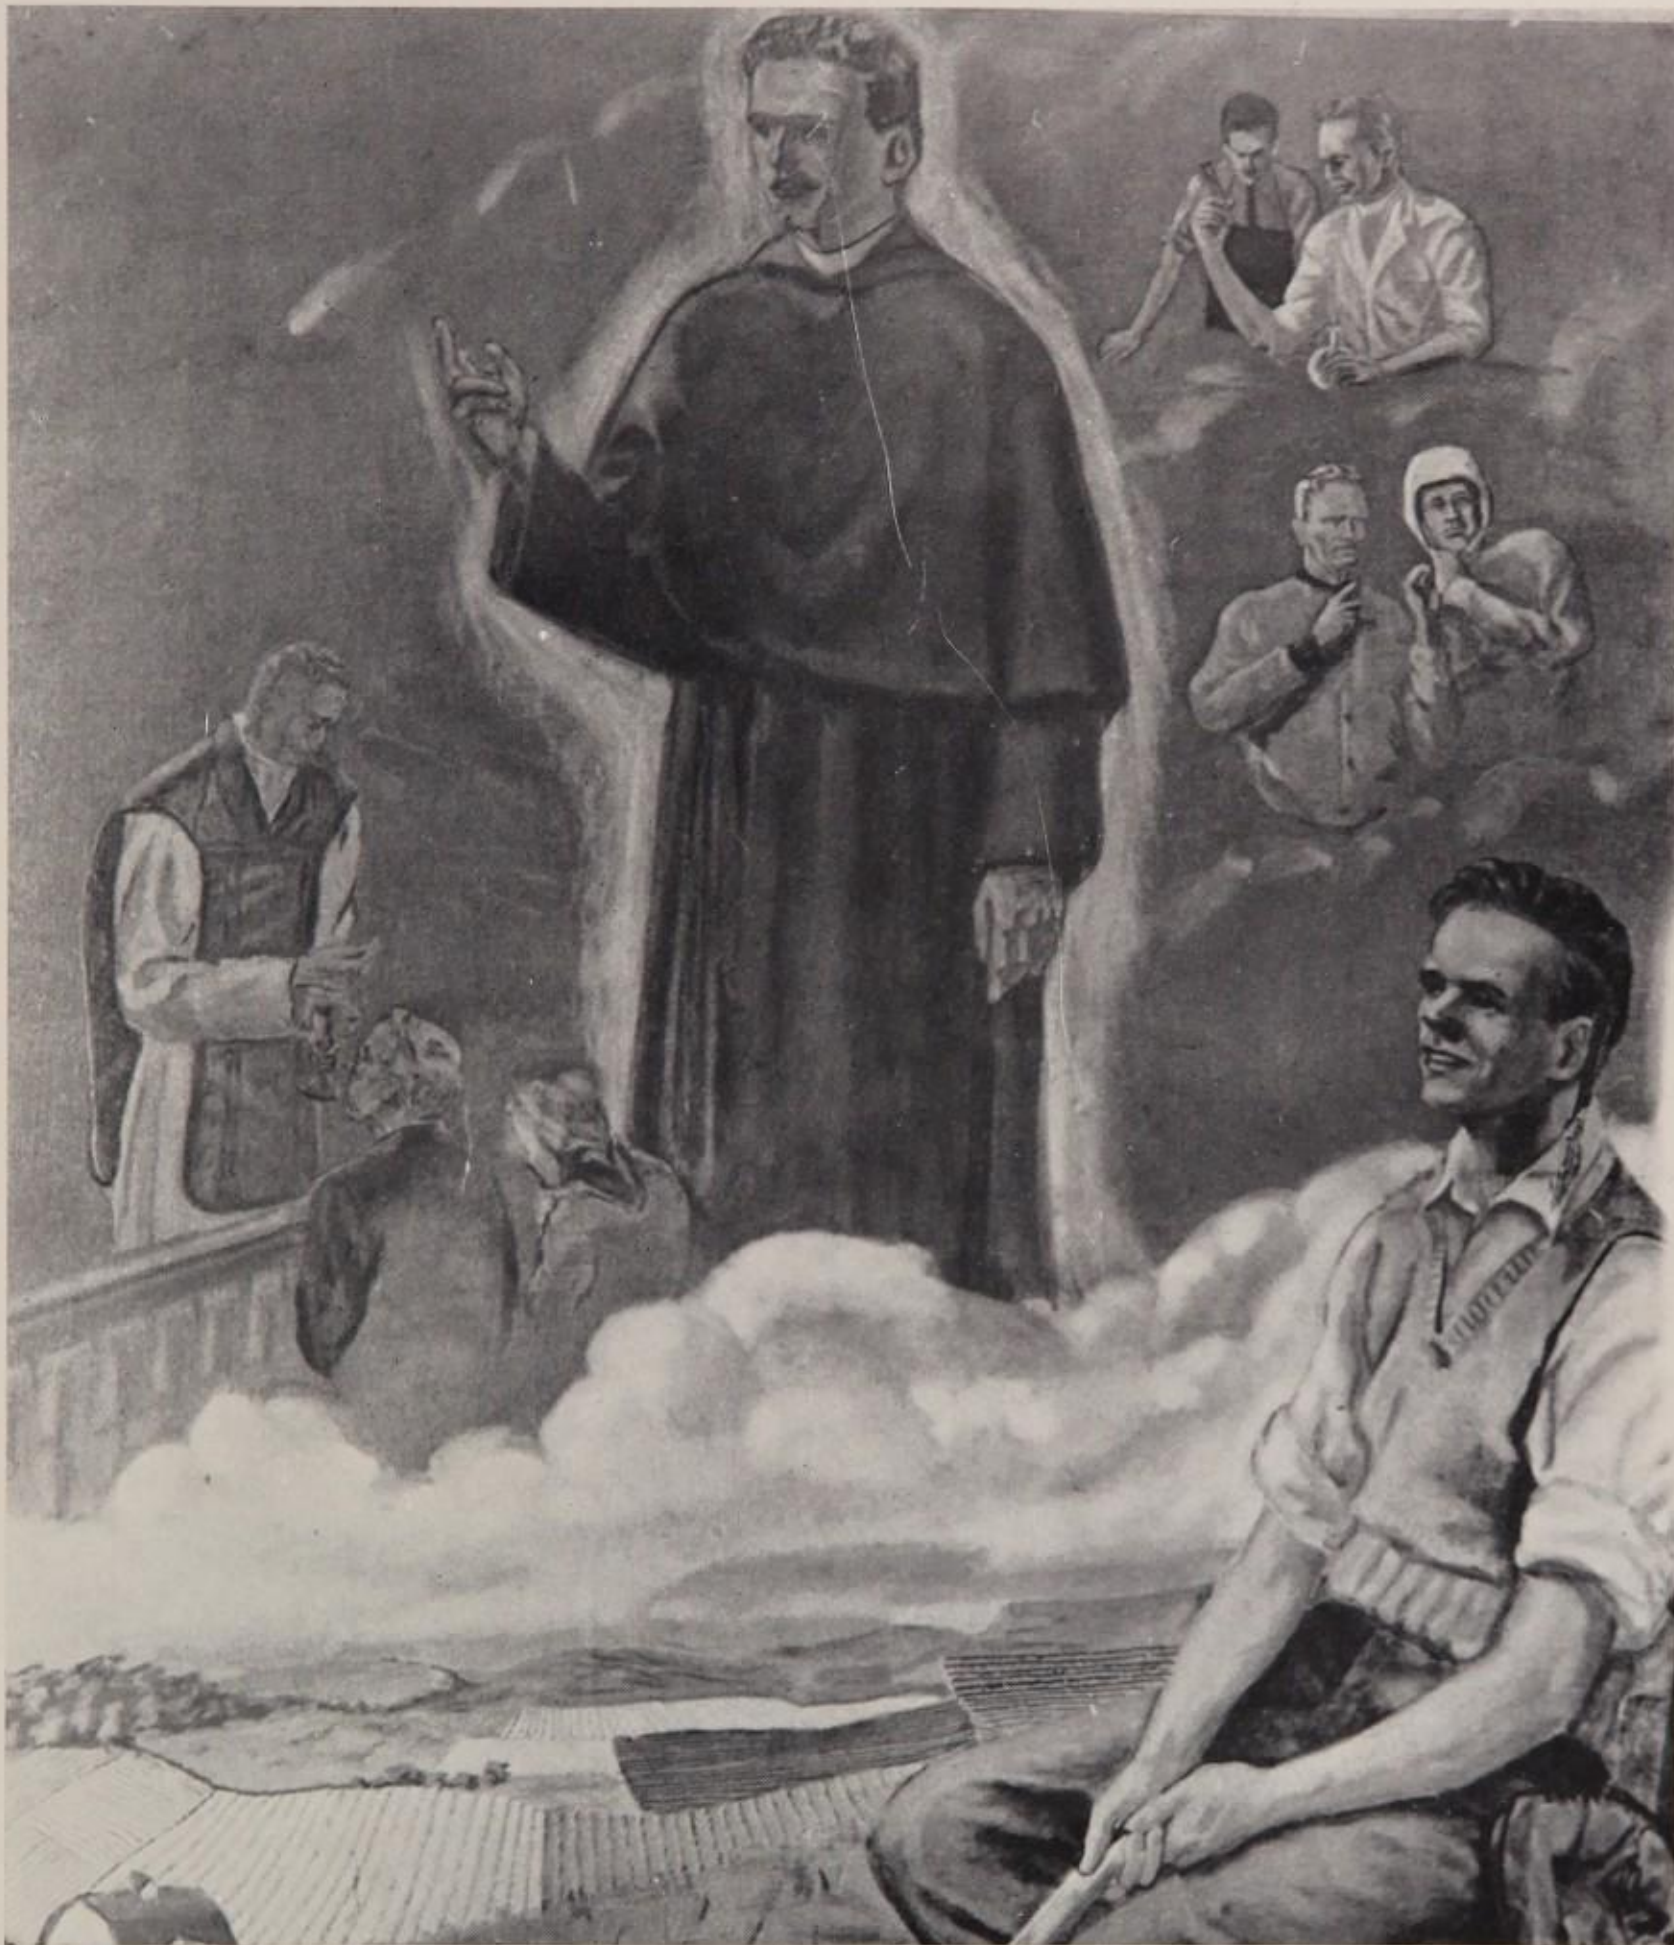

FR. RAYMOND
WHEELER

The National Honor Society may be composed of the elite, but not the snobs. To belong to it you must be selected. To be selected you must excel in scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

This cream of the crop gets special considerations in most colleges. It is almost tantamount to being knighted.

When the members aren't going around being honorable and exceptional they have various parties and dances and a lot of fun.

Vocations . . .

During March, the idea that one should be choosing his vocation at the time he is going to school was emphasized by the Augustinians.

Fr. Hartmann and Fr. Gaffney each gave a sermon on the priesthood. Vocation Week, March 22 to 27, featured an exhibit of posters and descriptive literature about the Augustinians and other orders. Boys interested in the life of a priest visited the Augustinian seminary in Holland, Michigan.

Fr. Gavin and Fr. Foley toured 37 different grammar schools to give talks on vocations, while Fr. Gavin also gave personal conferences to boys interested in the priesthood, religious or diocesan, Augustinian or otherwise.

Mother's Club...

FR. MCGOWAN

The Mothers' Club does collectively what every mother does individually—it gives of itself. The members, of course, are made up of mothers of students at St. Rita High School. Some are mothers of students long graduated. All do a very good job of making themselves a great help in contributing towards the increasing welfare of all students at St. Rita.

The Fathers' Club has a fund that pays the tuition of any student who's father has died during the course of his enrollment. It also provides much very badly needed athletic equipment. The fathers regularly act as ushers and such at athletic events as needed. They are all, God bless every one of them, to be repeatedly thanked for thir many and great efforts that have done so much to make St. Rita High School a better and better educational institution.

The Christian Mother's Sodality is composed of a group of mothers who get together for small social functions, and, on certain occasions, religious exercises such as a yearly retreat or some special devotion. They thus receive special indulgences, and each deceased member has a number of high masses said for her. The president is Mrs. Zofkie; Vice President, Mrs. McNally; Secretary, Mrs. Dunne; Treasurer, Mrs. Grace. Fr. Wheeler is the moderator.

Candid Close-ups

"Ace" Ardovitch is the editor of the most colorful little newspaper on the entire campus. It is called "Camera Close-Ups." This is strange because there are no photographs in it. It is more than a mere mimeographed bulletin, however. It is often a two-color job that dazzles the eye, and it is published for members of the Camera Club, containing various technical data and tips. Ray Lech is Assistant Editor, although he publishes other periodicals of his own.

Camera Club

The Camera Club affords its members the use of the dark-room and equipment therein. Many a free period is spent there as the shutter bugs happily teach themselves the intricacies of enlarging and developing. Occasionally a timely photograph may wind up on the pages of the Ritan. Now and then an expert is brought in to criticize prints and lecture on photo techniques.

Science Club

The Chemistry Lab is the scene each Tuesday morning of the weekly meetings of the Science Club. Scientific Course students, in this way, get a chance to perform certain absorbing experiments not included in the ordinary course curriculum. Bob Kalafut is the president. The club is noted for its high percentage of top students.

Mr. Smock is the Auto Shop teacher. Besides teaching the Automotives students how to take apart and put together a car with tools, he teaches them how to hold the car together and not take it apart when only the wheel and gas pedal are being manipulated. Which simply means that he teaches them how to drive.

St. Rita Forum

Mr. Arthur Sifferle "founded" the St. Rita Debate Forum this year. Being at the disadvantage of having little experience, the Forum's teams, composed mostly of seniors, have lost more than their share of debates. Cheer Leaders

St. Rita athletic events this year had the benefit of some outstanding work on the part of the cheer leaders. . . . This group, under the direction of Mr. Robert Black worked hard developing a real representative corps. . . . St. Rita students who distinguished themselves by loyal and efficient service were: Phil Balsamo, the leader of the group, Bobby Brown and Jack Walsh. . . . We were also fortunate in having the aid of several unselfish young ladies who gave up much that our cheering would resound. . . . They were: Julie Naughton and Joyce Robin-

Raffle

Pictured below is one of the two cars offered as prizes during this year's raffle. It is a 1953 Mainline Tudor Ford. The other was a Dodge 5-passenger coupe. Also offered was a 104 piece set of Community Silver with service for twelve.

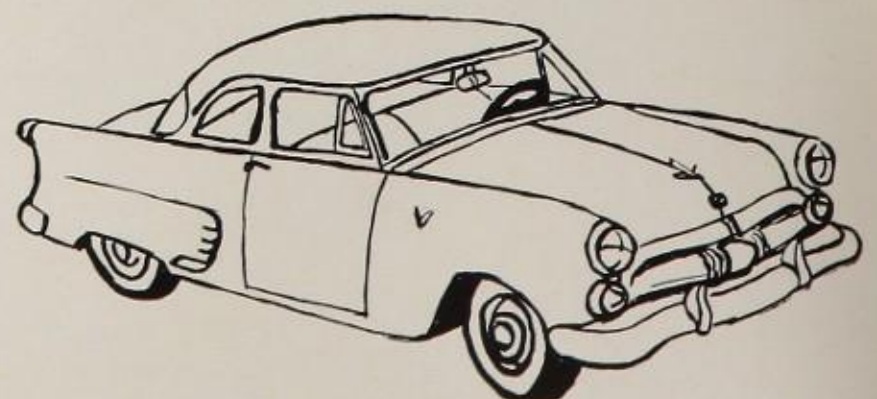

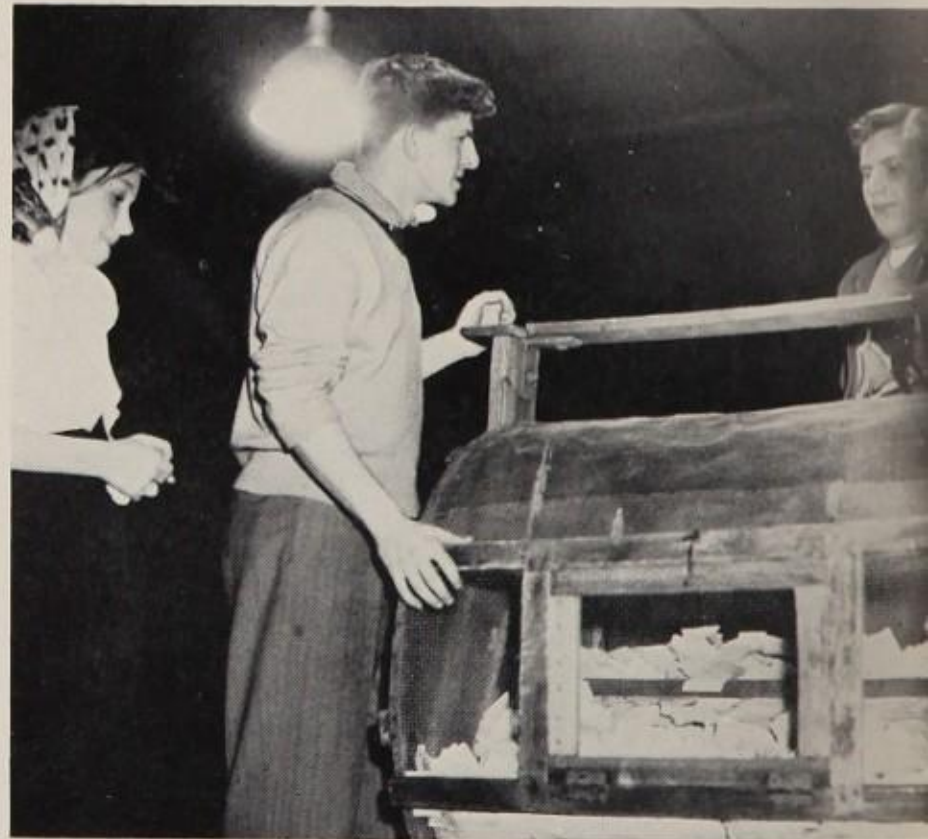

Persons disposing of the chance books got a separate chance at winning a 17 inch Philco Television Set.

The students showed their usual fine spirit and did all they could to sell the greatest possible number of books.

The administration graciously gave a free day to those sections who sold their quota. The senior class received special considerations in the Prom preparations for their generous support of the raffle.

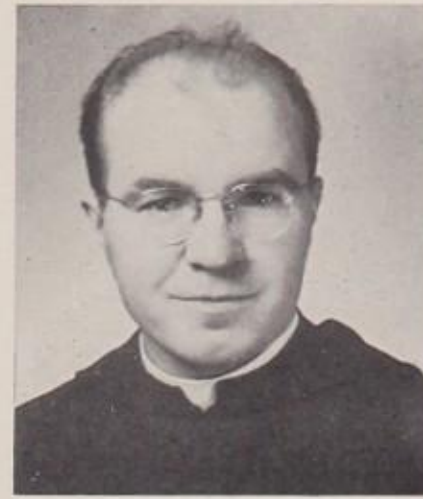

Propagation of the Faith

As the Vicar of Christ on earth and the Visible Head of the Church, the Holy Father is vitally interested in propagating the teachings of the Church. Chaotic conditions existing throughout so much of the world have made it necessary for Pope Pius XII to appear, in a special manner, to the Catholics of our country. St. Rita students have, for years, responded generously to His request. St. Rita High School has led all other schools of comparable size several times and, on other occasions, has been listed very near the top.

Bowling

Fr. Senke's Bowlers had quite a year. Holding the top position the entire season was George Seiler, with his hundred-eighty five average. Nice going, George. However, Mr. Sieler shares the spotlight with team of Piech, Paulikas, Nowaczyk, Wodarczyk, and Sula, who having held first place the whole campaign, took that position well ahead of the nearest competitor.

St. Rita Day is May 22. She is the "Saint of the Impossible" and the "Saint of the last resort." She was born at Rocco, Porena in 1386. When only twelve she was married to an ill-tempered man and remained faithful to him for eighteen years. When he was murdered, their three sons vowed to avenge it. St. Rita prayed that they would not commit such a sin. They all died before they had the chance. St. Rita entered the Augustinian Monastery and stayed there until she died.

Japanese Missionaries . . .

October 13, 1952 witnessed the Missionary Ceremony of Departure for three Augustinians. For them, this was the initial step in their journey to the Orient. A few days later, they began their trek to the west coast where they embarked for the Japanese city of Nagasaki. They are the first American Augustinians, but not the first Augustinians, to assume charge of mission territory in Japan. Augustinians from continental Europe, some centuries ago, worked in Japan and lent their blood to purple Japanese soil.

To Fathers Purcell and Krupa, of the Province of St. Thomas of Villanova and to Father Robinson, of the Province of Our Mother of Good Counsel, go our best wishes and our prayers.

Baseball Dance . . .

Halloween around St. Rita's was celebrated in a very fine manner. A dance was held in the gym for the baseball teams. This year as in the past Johnny Lewis and his orchestra supplied the music. The gym was decked out in the traditional black and orange of the season, with witches, black cats, and skeletons.

There were a host of celebrities such as George Moriarity, chief scout of the Detroit Tigers; Jim Hughes, president of the Chicago Amateur Baseball League; Cornelius McDonald, Commissioner of Southtown Little and Pony Leagues; and Tony Piet, the former White Sox player.

The proceeds went to Fr. O'Malley and Fr. Hayes for new equipment for the baseball teams.

This year's Basketball Banquet was a very special event because St. Rita H. S. was the City Champions. Senior center Ken Jaksy, who was all-city center and Junior Dan Curley received the most valuable player awards. Jaksy also received the best shooting percentage award for his .574 average, Jim Brewer of the Juniors for his .412.

The William Fay Hrophy, named after the late co-moderator of the Cascian and donated by Bud Gardner, was given to the varsity basketball player with the highest scholastic average: Tom Wichert.

Each member of the team, including the manager, received a small trophy for general team excellence.

Football Banquet . . .

The twenty-first annual Football Banquet given by the St. Rita Father's Club was held on December 31 in Syrena's Restaurant. The full squad was honored. The featured speakers were Bob Schultz, coach, Barney Badke, assistant-coach, and Fr. Lehane. Fr. Lehane made known the award winners. Special awards were given to the following: Jim Brewer, most valuable back, Hilary Mecaskey, most valuable lineman, and John Bacher received the Sportsman trophy. A grand time was had by all.

Valentine Dance

This year's Valentine Dance was held in the gym, and, true to tradition, it proved to be a lot of fun for everybody attending. Jock Holbrook and his orchestra provided the music. The gym was tastefully decorated to suit the occasion. Perhaps it wasn't held at a country club, but the atmosphere created was pleasant enough to make it one of the highlights of the social season.

Our primary purpose for attending St. Rita's is to develop spiritually, mentally, and physically, and to build character according to the plan of God. It is for this reason that all students are encouraged to participate in sports. There is, of course, interscholastic sports for the outstanding athletes and an intramural program for the others.

At the head of this select group was Fr. Lehane, the Athletic Director. Through much hard work he achieved a very high standard of efficiency in running his office.

Although the record of the Mustangs is not impressive, we are all proud of a team which never stopped fighting. Hampered by injuries and inexperience, the Mustangs were defeated often according to the number of points scored against them, but never were they defeated in spirit or determination.

We praise coach Schultz for his commendable job of instilling fighting spirit in his players, and we wish coach Cody the best of luck in the following seasons.

Lightweight Football...

Under the efficient guidance of their new mentor Bud Keeney, the Mustang Ponies finished their 1952 season with three wins and six losses for a .333 average. These gallant grid iron gladiators opened their campaign in mid-September dropping the first three to the Owls of Gage Park 9-0, Mendel Catholic 20-0, and 6-0 to the Blue Devils of Tilden. The Ponies broke their losing streak by trouncing the Ironmen of St. Elizabeth 20-0, for the first win in four starts. In a game which must still give coach Keeney nightmares, the Cavaliers of C. V. S. came from behind in the closing minutes of the game to nip the Ritans 7-6 in a heart-breaker. Our callow colts suffered their worst defeat at the hands of Morgan Park 34-0. After this disheartening loss our Ponies bounced back into the win column by mauling both Harper and De La Salle 19-0. In their final contest, with two straight victories under their belt St. Rita's "Mighty Mites" invaded Jackson Park eager for another win, only to be swept away by the on-rushing Caravan from Mt. Carmel 6-0.

Heavyweight Basketball

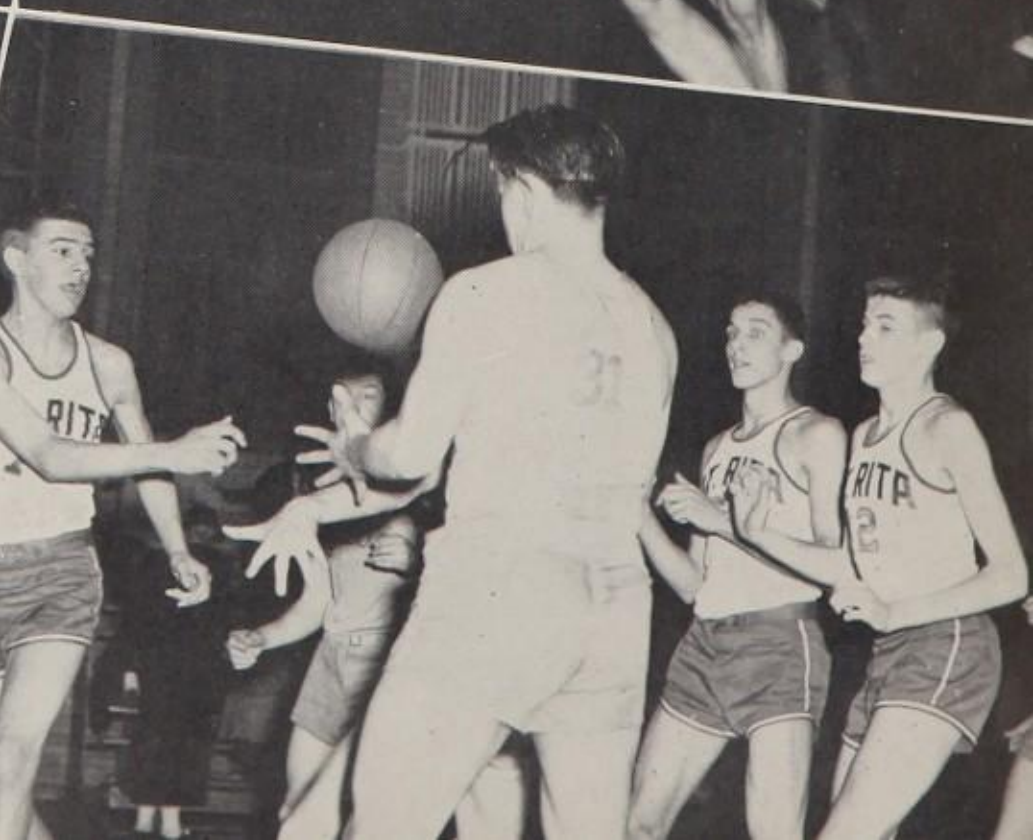

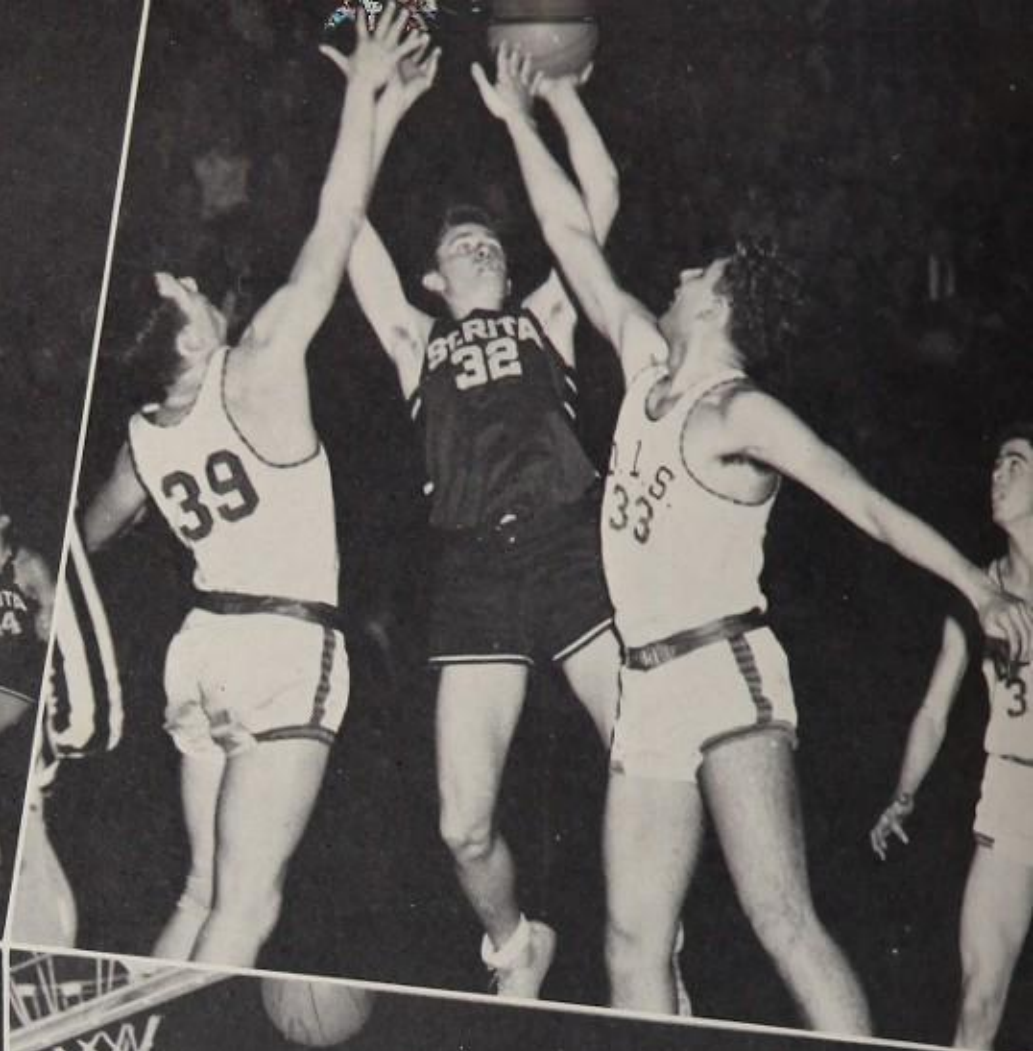

The Heavyweight squad finished the regular season with a winning record and secured for themselves a playoff berth. Although the Mustangs failed to retain their City League title, they provided their followers with many thrills which will not soon be forgotten. Lloyd Scholl, Jack Witry, "Red" Kelly, Jim Burke, Bud Sloup, Monk Brennan, Joe Sisko, Norb Randich, and Duke Freyermouth, were the mainstays of the squad.

Lightweight Basketball

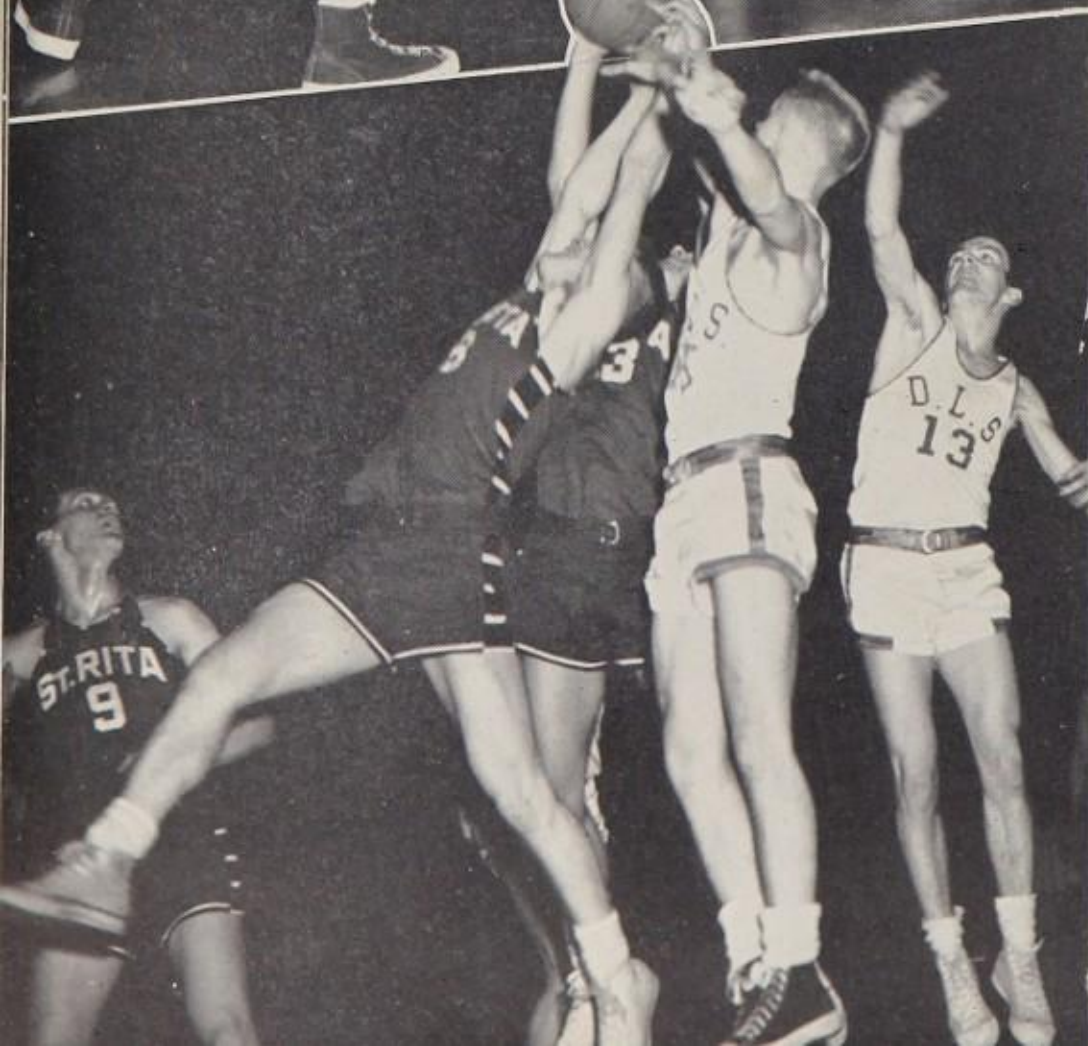

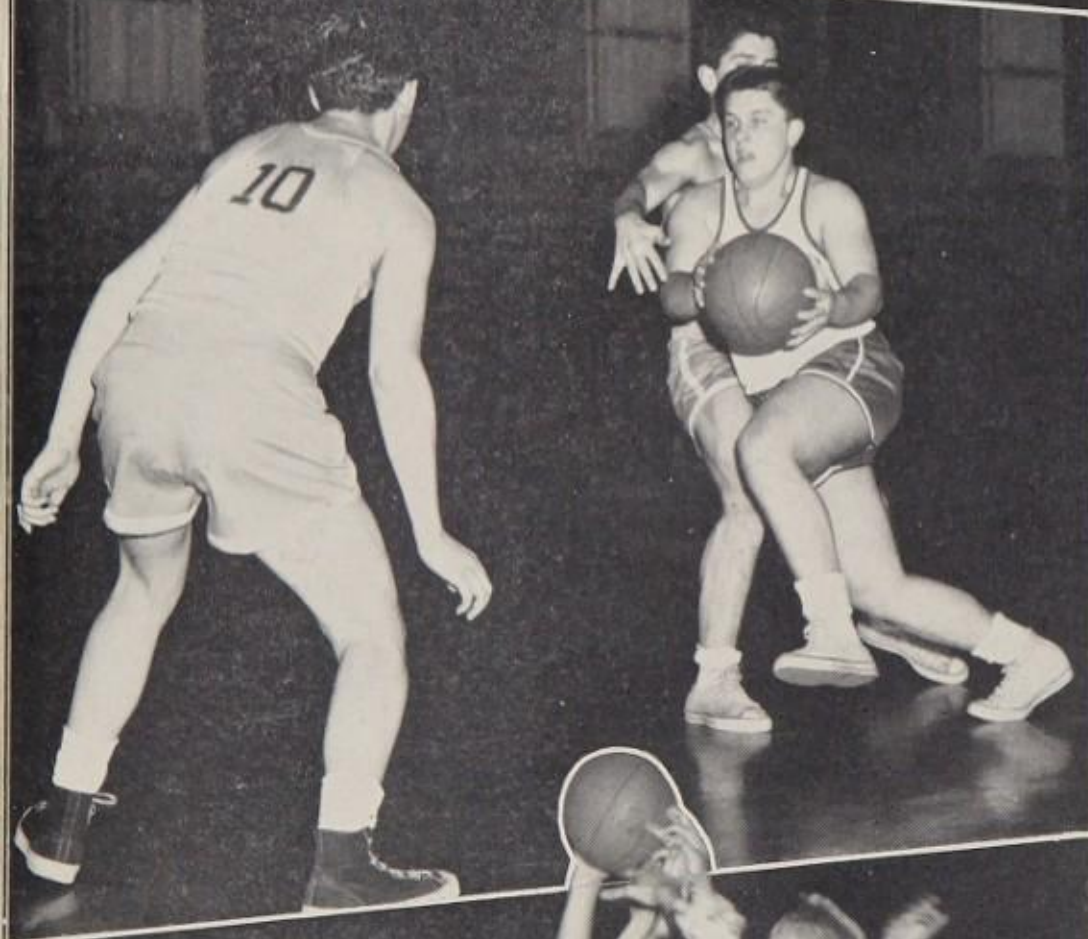

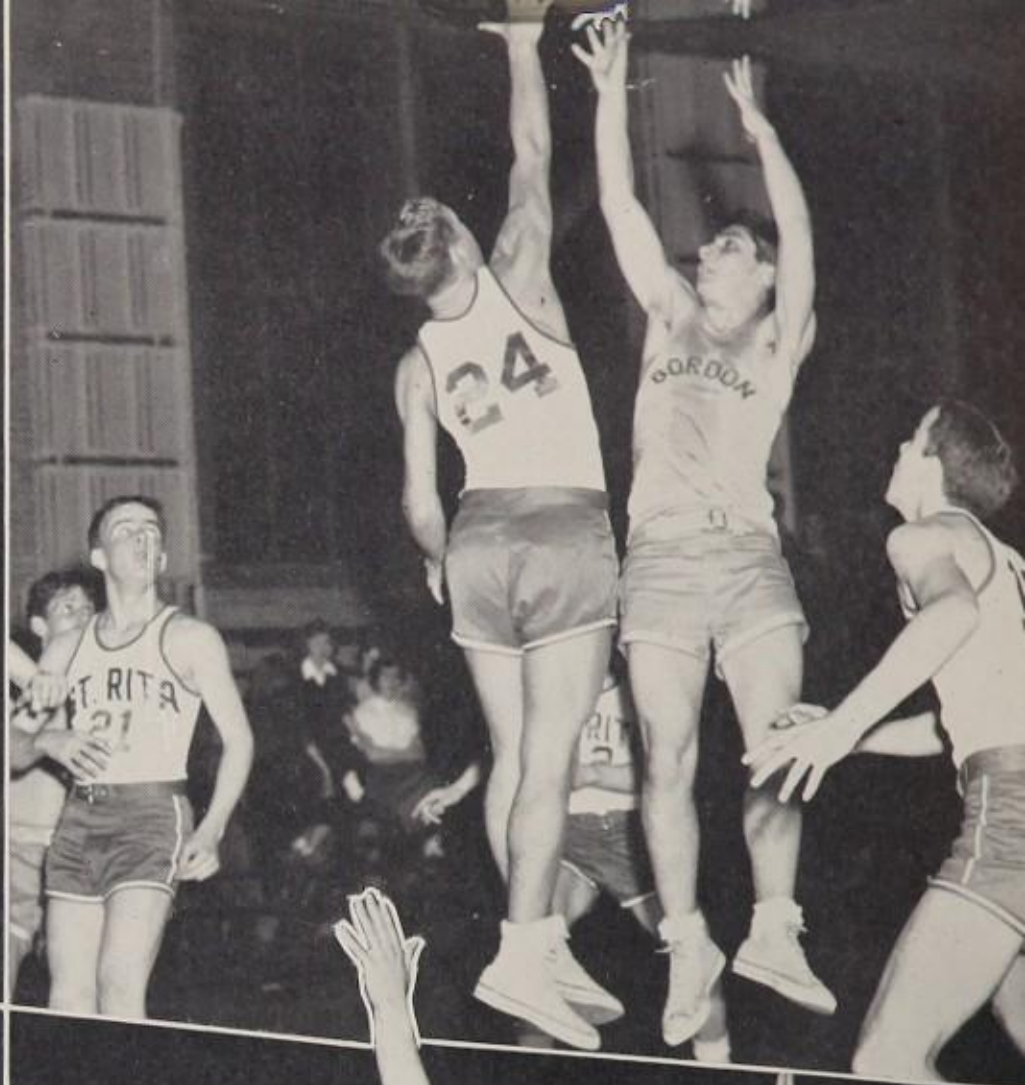

The St. Rita Lightweight Squad—"the good little men of basketball" managed to compile an exceptional record in an unusually rough league, wherein no soft touches could be found. The Lightweight Squad consisted mostly of juniors, who will be back to spark the 1954 club. The Lights were surpassed by many in experience, by few in ability, and by none in fighting spirit. Jim Roche, Bill Thompson, Jim Brewer, "Jake" Schmitz, Marty Perlongo, Bob Vollinger, and Bob Soltis formed the nucleus of the Lights.

Bantamweight Basketball

Bob Schultz for the fourth time in a row led his Bantams through a great season, probably their best for some time to come. Mr. Schultz himself declared that this year's Bantamweights were by far the best he ever coached. In the past four years coach Schultz has trained many boys who later starred on the Varsity. We of the Cascian salute Bob Schultz for a great job well done.

Flyweight Basketball

Another great season has ended for the St. Rita Flyweights. Under the watchful eye of Fr. Giovenetti the Flys finished their season with a very admirable record as in the past. In the years to come we know that he will continue to mold many more good teams. Only through his untiring and endless work has he attained such great teams. We know he will strive for even better teams in the future. We of the Cascian wish to congratulate Fr. Giovenetti for this year's work.

Midget Basketball . . .

St. Rita's Midgets had another great season due to the herculean efforts of Fr. O'Malley. This year as in the past the Midgets ran up an astounding record. With the closing of another season we can again congratulate Fr. O'Malley for his grand job. In his many years here at St. Rita's he has put out many fine teams. We of the Cascian sincerely hope that Fr. O'Malley will be back next year to continue his great work in this field.

Free Throw Contest

The free throw contest of 1952 was again, as in the past a tremendous success due to the competent supervision of Mr. Badke and Mr. Schultz.

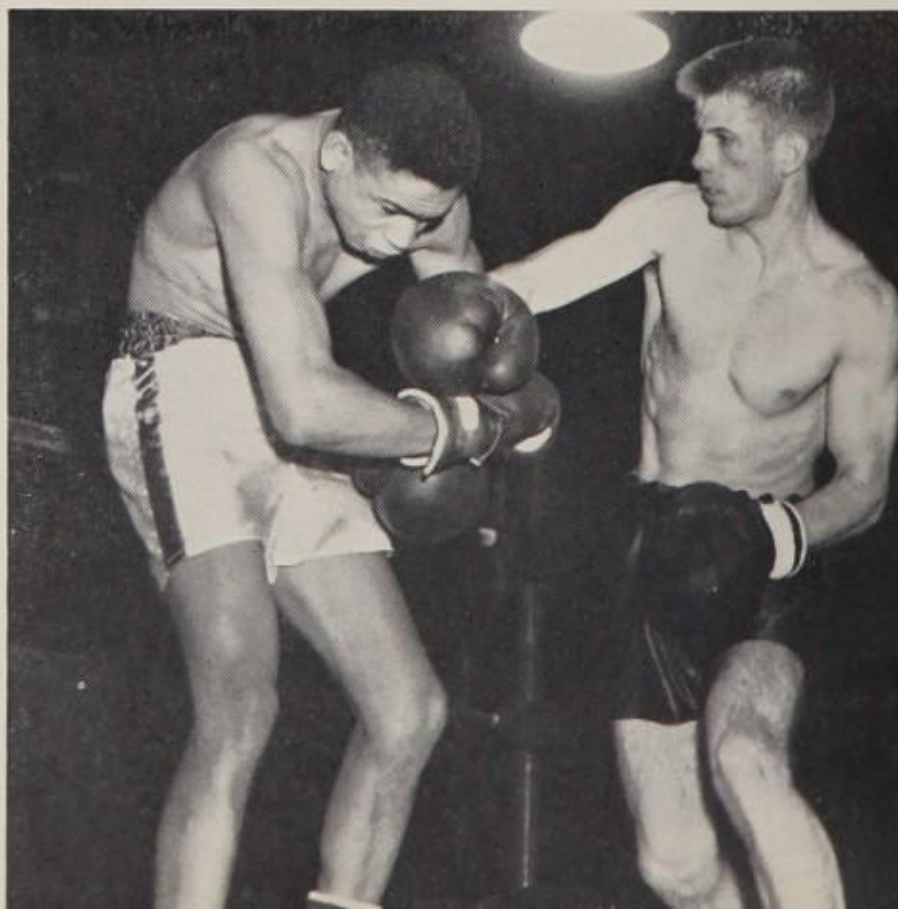

The winners were: Winans Senior champ, Burke Junior champ, Massaro Sophomore champ, and Swain Freshman champ.

Boxing . . .

The boxing team this year included Ronald Pedone, 118 lb. slugger who battled into the Golden Glove South Side Novice Championship. Jim McCormack, 135 lbs., qualified as South Side finalist. Other finalists included Dom DiNovella, 135 lbs., and Leo Doyle, 126 lbs. These last two were edged out by their team-mates McCormack and Ken Kaner, respectively. A few ounces of weight was all that kept Bob Jemilo from competing in the 112 lb. open division on the north side.

Baseball . . .

During the past year St. Rita once again set the pace for Chicago high schools in regard to baseball participation and enthusiasm, as it has been doing for many years. Certainly if there is one single factor for the fabulous baseball success St. Rita enjoyed during the past season, that factor is the energy and determination of Fr. J. J. O'Malley, the baseball coach. Fr. O'Malley piloted six Rita squads and all but one of his teams captured a championship.

The St. Rita senior varsity squad compiled a season's record of 15 wins and 7 losses and went on to defeat the North Side Braves to cinch their second consecutive Chicago Amateur Baseball League championship. The game produced many thrills before the outcome was decided in the favor of the Ritans, 10-7. Mainstays of the seniors are Bob Benzing, Jim Alsip, Lloyd Scholl, Bob Spitkovski, Bob Kalafut, Ray Sutkowski, Bob Winans, Ray Derbas, Bob Ryan, and Joe Szumlas.

Fr. O'Malley's midgets, composed of 13 to 15 years old players, under 5½ feet, captured the Byrne Field League Pennant as they won 15 games and lost 8.

The Marquette Chiefs, Fr. O'Malley's entry in the Little League won 11 out of 18 games, and in doing so won the Little League Pennant.

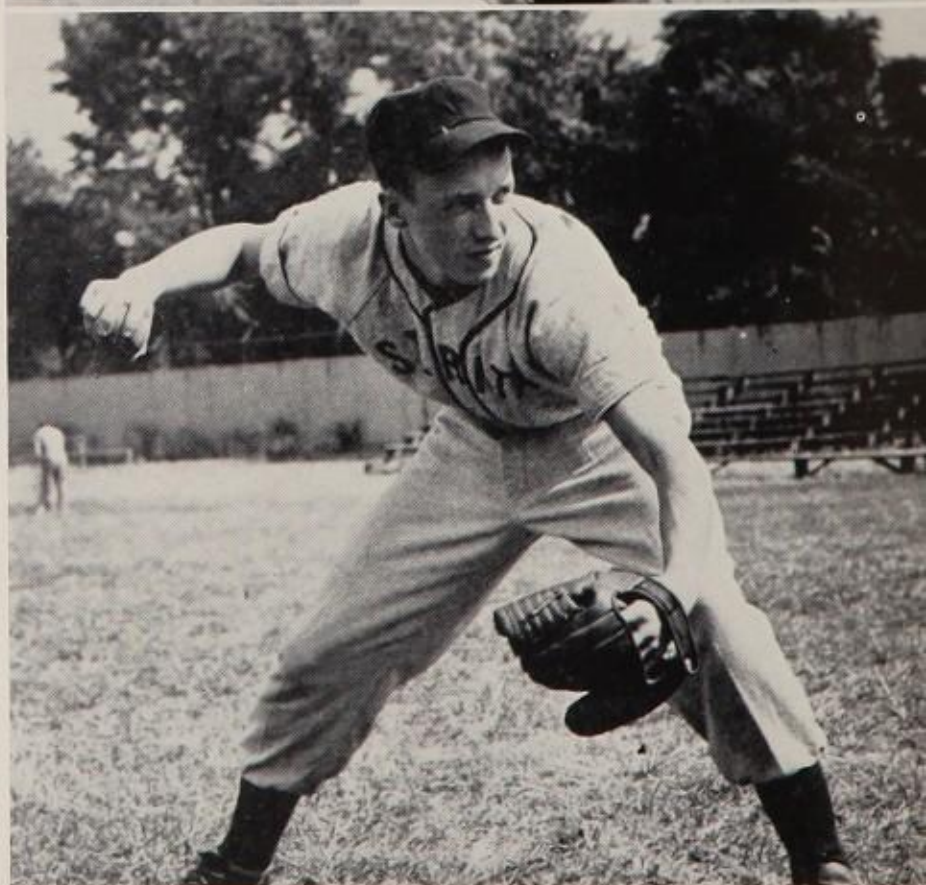

The 13 and 14 year old players, known as the Bobcats, won 16 and lost 7 games. The Bobcats nished first in the Ogden Park League and managed to finish third in the Byrne Field League.

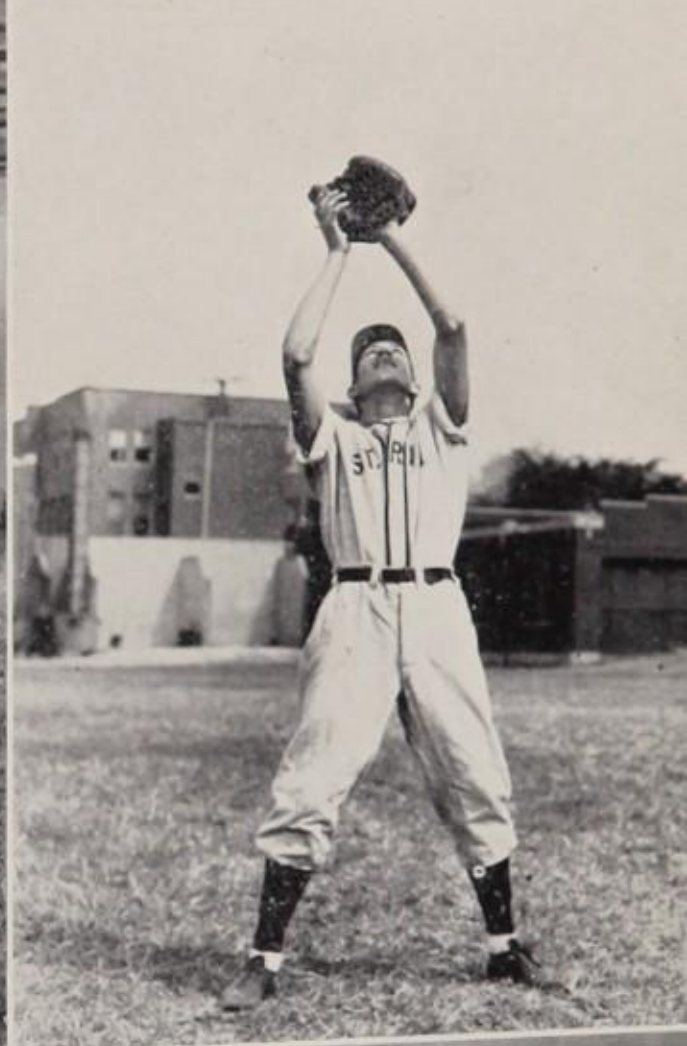

Strike

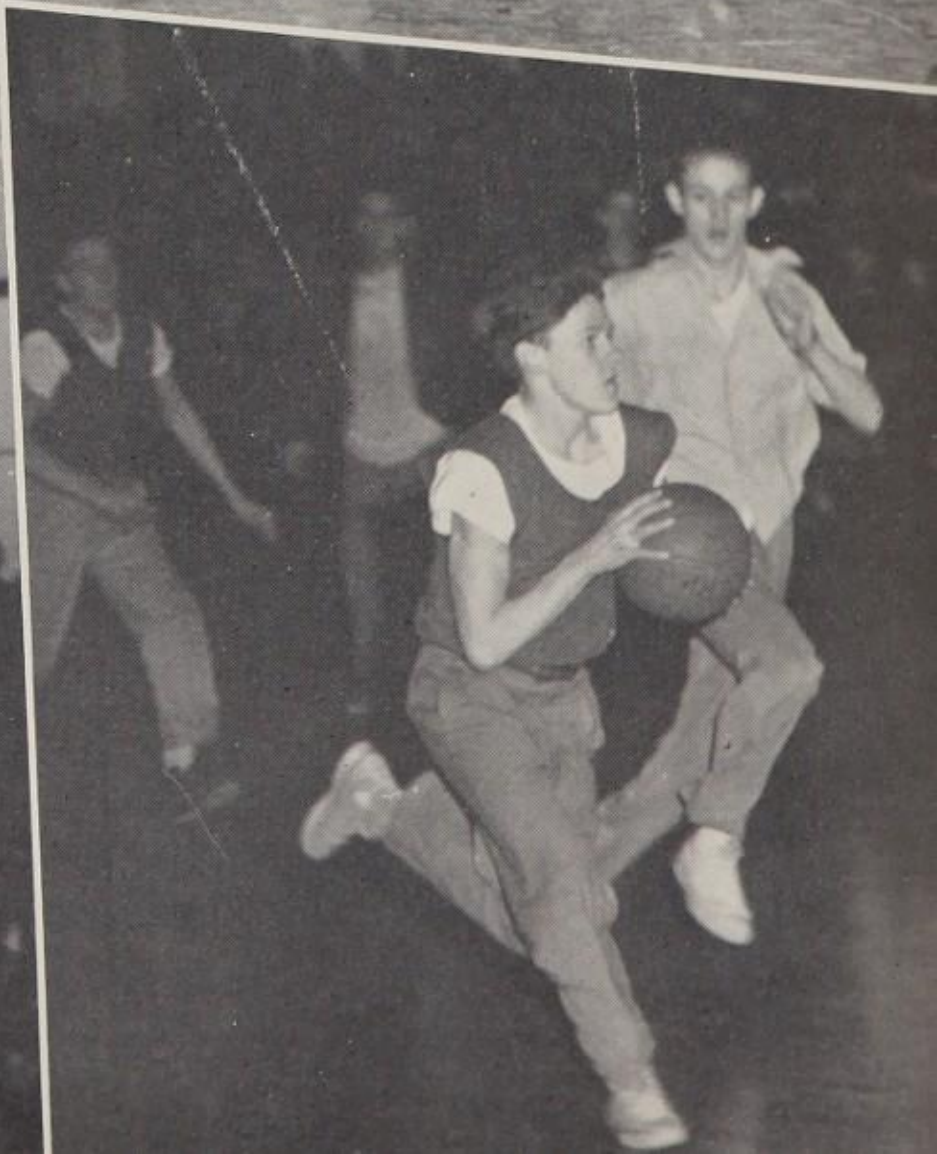

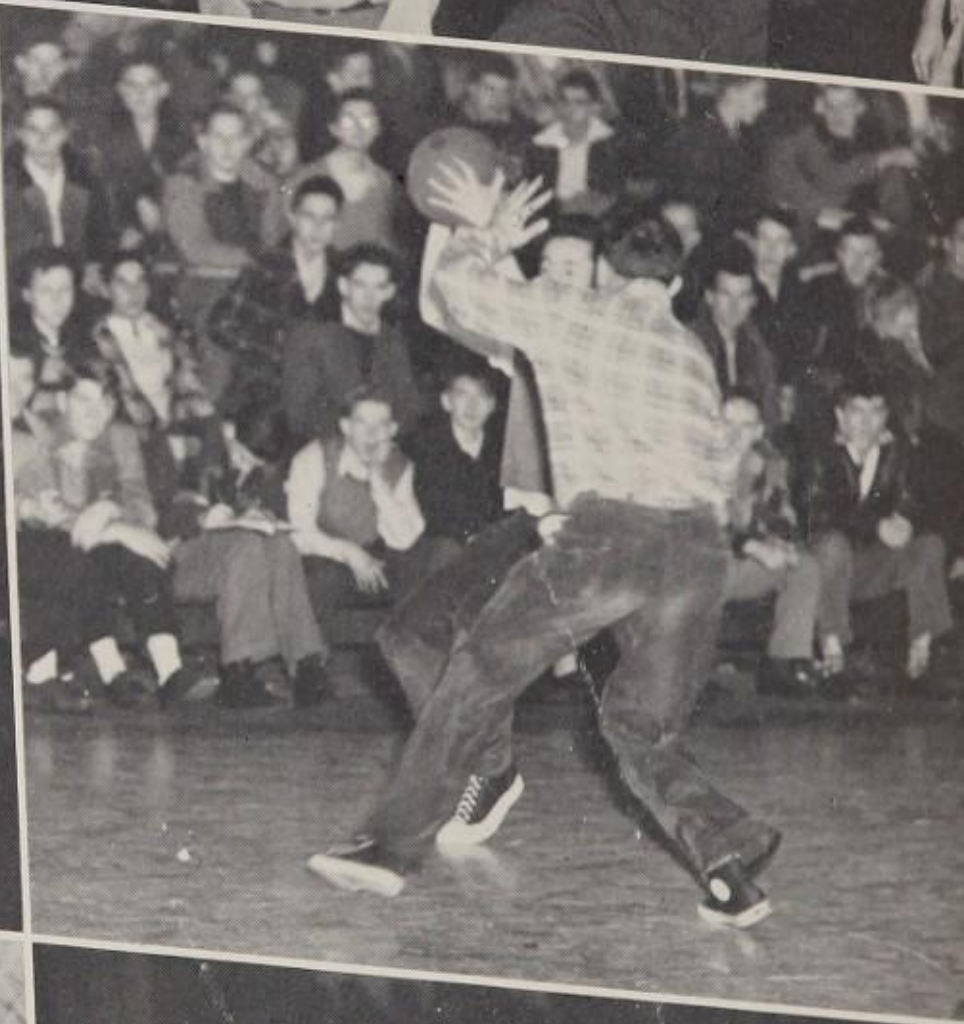

The St. Rita Frosh team captured the McKinley Park Liberty League without losing a game. In the city playoffs, the Bobcats won three shutout victories before being edged out by Sherman Park. The total season record of the Sophs was an admirable 17 victories and 2 defeats.

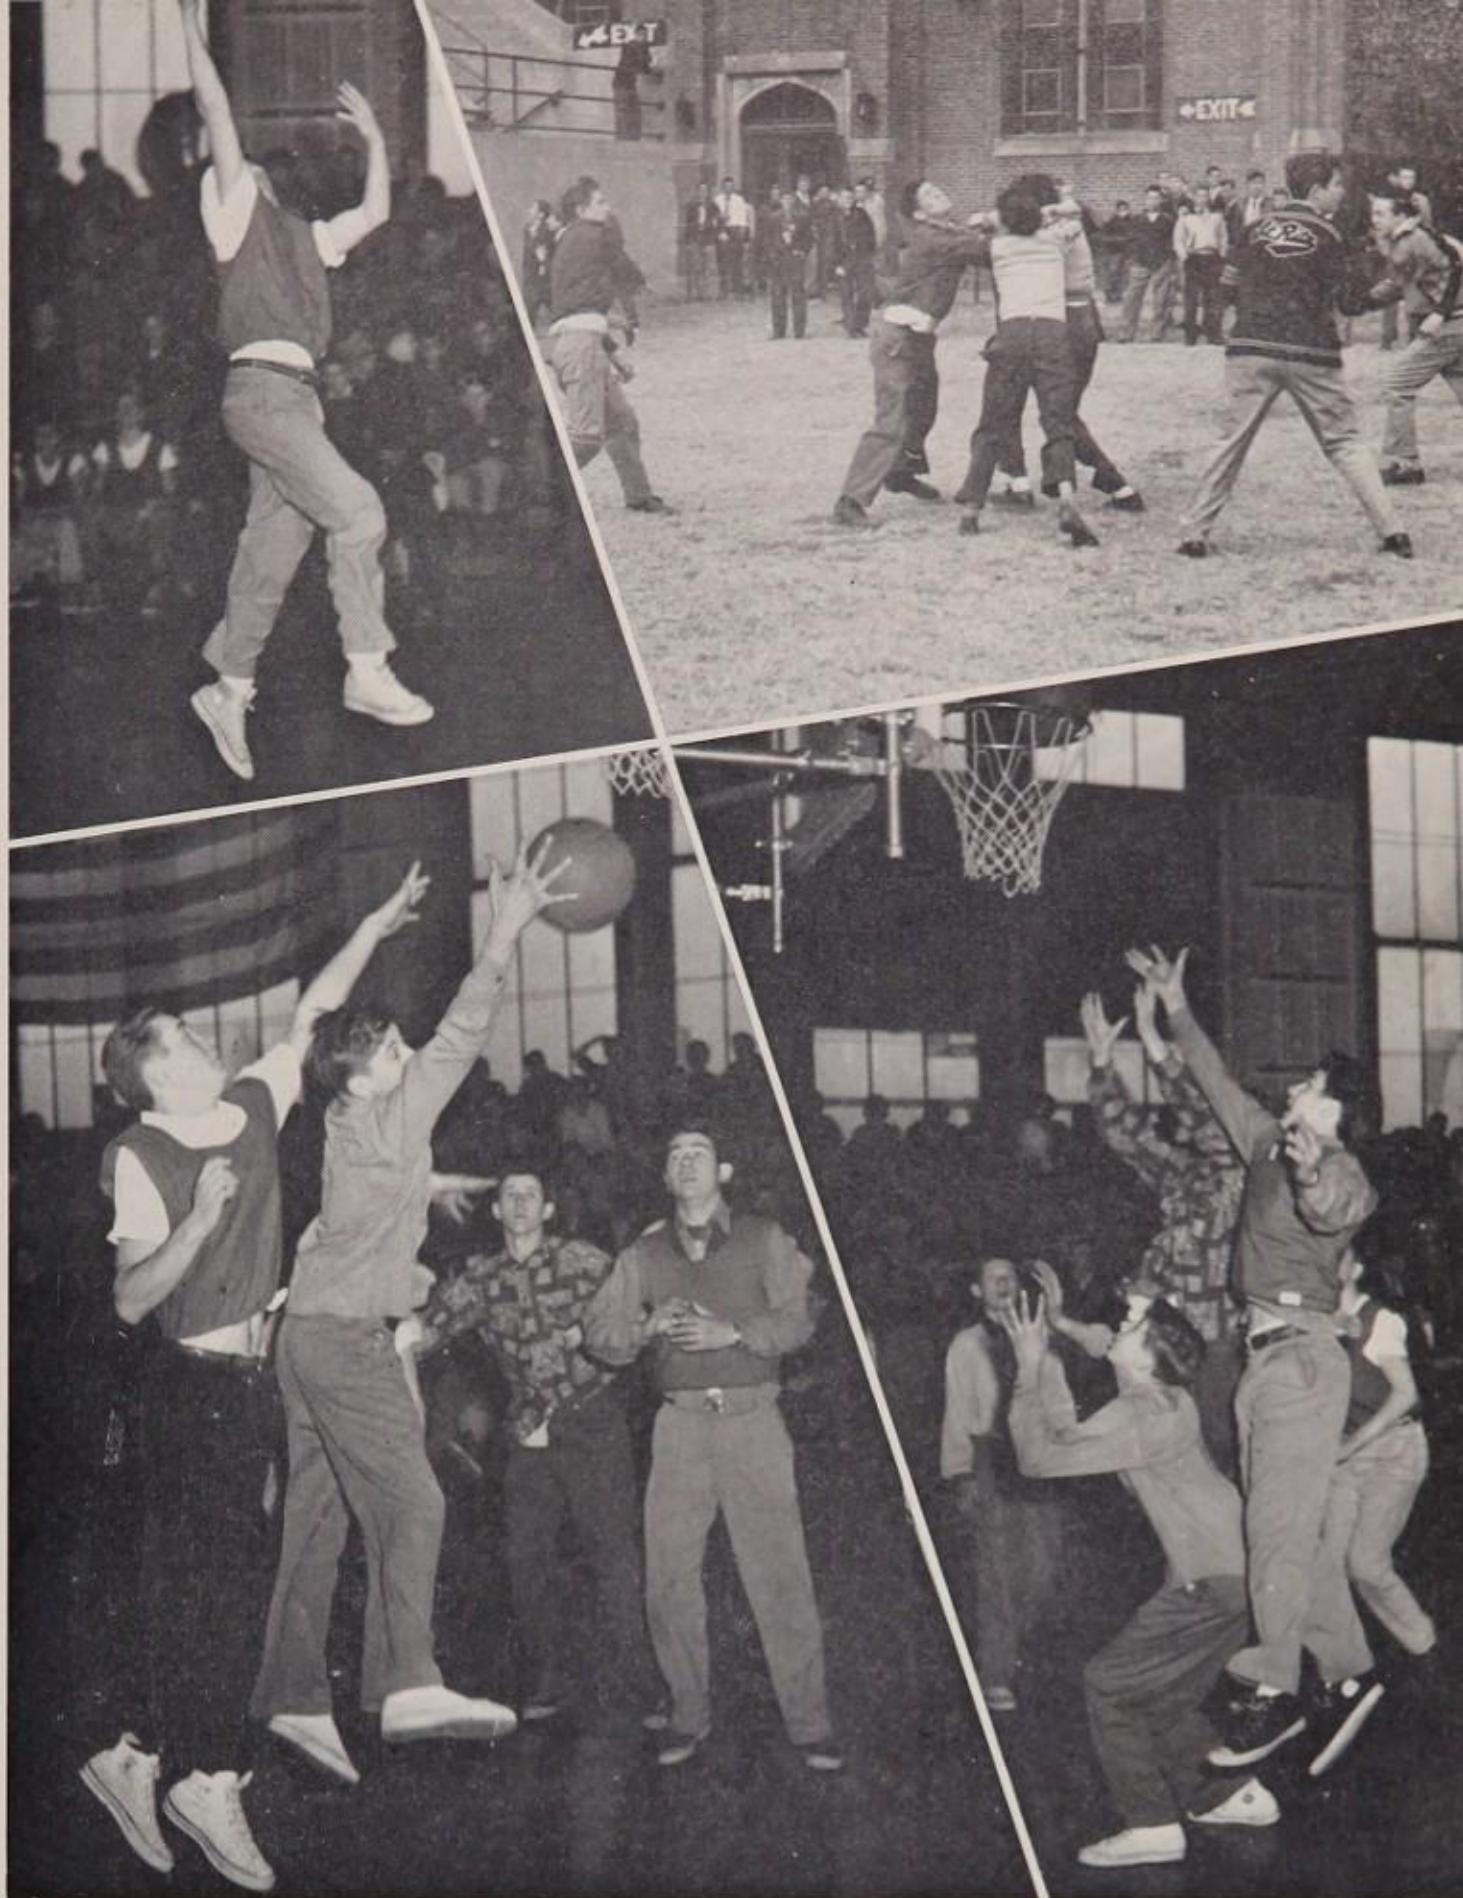

The St. Rita B team, composed of boys 16 years and under, was the only St. Rita team which failed to win a championship. The B team finished second in the Ogden Park League with a 15-12 record.

One . . .

Intramurals . . .

Certainly all of our students cannot be represented in varsity sports, as athletic prowess is distributed unequally. Intramural sports have been created for the students whose ability, but not love of competition, is surpassed by others.

The intramural program was handled expertly by coaches Cody and Schultz, under whose care the lunch time rivalries flourished. Basketball, football, and boxing were presented to the students for their physical advancement.

A Last Look

For the Seniors of 1953 this is the last look. For the underclassmen it's merely the beginning of another summer and the end of two semesters. It is a last look at the buildings, the quiet halls, the faculty, and most of all . . . our friends. The friends whose faces will fade with the passing of time. So let us not disturb their silent reverie for this is . . . their last look.

FAKE OF THE NEWS

This week's session of the Grudge Group opens with a letter from John Stanisha about allegedly uneven boxing matches sponsored by the QBC:

"The recent bouts between Bern 'Sailor Boy' Clancy and Ronald 'Bolo' Nicholas are an example of the scheming tactics used by the gangster element that controls the Queensbury Boxing Club. Such big shots as Tom 'Derby' Borzym and Al 'Tripod' Trippam fix the fights and mop up on the bookies.

"Clancy and Nicholas are pretty well matched. Clancy has a wicked scalp and his laces are well honed, and Nicholas has permanent scars to prove it. Nick himself has elbows hard as steel, and his thumb is the most educated one in the boxing world.

"But the fact that they keep alternately winning and losing their return matches is grounds for suspicion."

COMMENT: None. I value my life.

There was a lot of mail about Bill Harding's decision to move his club's franchise from 88th Street to 88th Place. Jake Schiller writes:

"The reason Harding gave for his move was that he had found a bigger vacant lot on 88th Place. Thus he shows that he cares not a whit for the club's loyal fans, but worries only about his own financial position. Softball can do without him. It was unfortunate that once the team had to give him control when they had run out of money to get fresh softballs."

COMMENT: Baseball has become too maudlin an affair if people start to mourn the leaving of a bunch of fellows who know how to wave a stick.

TAX EVADER NABBED BY NEWSBOY'S TESTIMONY

Jack Witry, respected businessman on Chicago's South Side, was arrested by federal agents today on charges of income tax evasion. Witry's annual income for the year was suspiciously near the next highest tax bracket. The FBI decided to check up. They could pin nothing on him. That is, until they checked with the newsboy from whom Witry buys his daily paper.

The newsboy, who gave his name as Joe Fitzgerald, said that Witry had shortchanged him a month before. "I tried to get the nickel off him, but he was too stubborn. I didn't want to lose him as a customer, so I let it go."

The nickel was reported on the tax form under "incidental expenses." "Of course this constituted fraud and tax evasion, for you see that nickel was all that was needed to put Witry in a higher bracket. In this way he avoided paying about $17,000 in taxes," said Jim Burke, representative of the legal branch of the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

Charges will be brought against Witry at the next Federal court session.

HIT AND RUN VICTIM UNIDENTIFIED

Late this afternoon an unidentified man was seriously injured by a hit and run driver. "Identification proved difficult," said Joseph Jadwick, city coroner, "because my men were a little bit clumsy in scraping him off the telephone pole." Only object found in the man's pocket was a nickel.

ARTIST'S EXHIBITION DRAWS BARBS FROM CRITICS

The celebrated surrealist artist, John Francois Nizick, held an exhibit of his works last week in the Art Museum. Critics were puzzled at his paintings. Famous New York critic Richard Niedbalec said succinctly, "The guy's a bum." Ray Derbas, noted photographer, said that the pictures showed poor composition: "Take that green glob of stuff in the corner of this one, for instance. It would look better by the left antler of this three-eyed deer." His associate, Peter Stirbis, asked what was the picture supposed to represent, that looked like a burned negative. Nizick gave him an icy stare and answered: A chimneysweep going home during a blackout.

When it was discovered that the city was flooded with counterfeit five, ten, and twenty and even some fifteen dollar bills, Ray "Scoops" Murphy was assigned to crack the case. Police chief Joe Sisko confessed that he was baffled by the cunning work of this syndicate. The chief further deduced that he thought that Bud "Slippery" Sloup and his side kick Bob "Cee Cee" Vollinger were at the bottom of every thing and that they headed the syndicate. Starting on his own "Scoops" called Northside 7777 and learned from Ed "Squealer" Drozed that the bills were being printed in an old abandoned house at 711 Ocean Drive. It was then learned that the house was owned by Jim "Red Dog" Kelly and Dick "Monk" Brennan. They were in cahoots with the syndicate.

"Scoops" then notified chief Sisko who sent two of his best men Denny "Dim-witt" Dine and Larry "Toe" Scannell to bring them in. When chief Sisko's men closed in the whole syndicate surrendered without a fight. Sloup and Vollinger along with Kelly and Brennan all were sentenced to twenty years in Fr. Crawford's jug class. "Scoops" Murphy received the reward of $1.75.

RELIEF BILL ATTACKED ON SENATE FLOOR

A bill proposing relief checks for unemployed jug ex-convicts was voted down because of a rider that set aside a fund for all politicians with the initials: J. D. Senator Jack Dillon, who defended the bill, said, "I personally know a poor public servant with the initials J. D. who needs and deserves every cent of that fund."

Ray Lech, editor of the capital's largest newspaper, violently opposed the bill, because he thinks that the budget and taxes should be cut. "Especially the tax on newsprint," said Lech.

Governor Norbert Kosinski sat in on the session. When asked about the bill, he gave his usual keen summary of the situation "No comment."
